SPRING Around the Lakes!

Getting a jump on the calendar, Llano begins the Spring celebrations this weekend with its amazing Llano Earth Art Festival (L.E.A.F.). The highlight is a hugely popular rock-stacking competition on the banks (and in the water) of the Llano River, but a multitude of other activities keep the downtown area busy from Friday afternoon until Sunday evening. At the same time, a Hodge Podge Market will be held at the JLK Event Center from 10 to 4 on Saturday and Sunday, March 11 & 12. For more photos of upcoming Spring activities in the Highland Lakes area, see pages 4-10.

Upcoming Events

Some of the most spectacular rock-stacking events at the Llano Earth Art Fest were those in the Llano River two years ago. Organizers expect rock-stackers from around the world to be at this year’s event.

By JOHN HALLOWELL

The Marble Falls Public Library will host freelance writer and author Jessika Dupuy (United States of Texas) at its Lunch at the Library, scheduled for 11:30 a.m. on Friday, March 10. Reservations are required, but there is no charge. RSVP at the library or call 830-693-3025.

The Llano Earth Art Fest, with its rock-stacking, live music and many other outdoor activities, will be held at the Llano River from March 10 to 13. There will be a Hodge Podge Market at the JUKE Event Center in Llano from 10 to 4 on Saturday and Sunday, March 11 & 12.

The Hill Country Humane Society will have adoptable animals on hand for a Show and Shine at Horsehoe Bay Ace Hardware (9714 FM 2411) from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday, March 11. Come out and meet our wonderful animals and volunteers and learn more about our organization. For more info, call them at 512-793-5403 or check them out online at www.hillcountryhumane.org.

The YMCA in Burnet will host a free Seek, Hop Dance, featuring the music of Big Aron and The Alley Cats, from 6 to 9 p.m. on Saturday, March 11.

CASA of the Highland Lakes will hold an “After March Gray” Gamma Bash Bash at The Trails of Horsehoe Bay (4751 Fm 71, near Blue Lake), beginning at 11:30 a.m. on Monday, March 13. March Gun owners are welcomed! Call 830-953-6578 for details.

The Kingland Genealogical Society will present a program on “No Vital Records? Locating Birth and Death Sustainment” with Ted Hack at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, March 14, at the Kingland Library.

The third Winter Texan Dinner will be held at the Kingland Community Center on Tuesday, March 14. Doors will open for a social hour beginning at 5 p.m. Dinner will be served at 6.

The Kingland Chamber of Commerce invites members to attend its monthly Breakfast Club Meeting, scheduled for the morning of Wednesday, March 15, at Prodan Salon & Spa. Doors open 7:45, and the program will run from 8 to 9. Kingland Hills Care Center is this month’s sponsor.

Learning Fun 101 will sponsor a LEGO Fun Day, with a free program from 2 to 4 p.m. on Wednesday, March 15, at the Herman Brown Free Library. The program is free-of-charge, and all children are welcome to attend. However, due to a 50 child limit, pre-registration at 512-715-8228 or www.hermanbrownlibrary.org is strongly encouraged.

The Friends of the Kingland Library will hold a Game Day from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Thursday, March 16, at the Highland Lakes United Methodist Church (see ad on page 12).

Johanna Huff will give a talk on Mason Bees at a meeting of the Llano County Master Gardeners at 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 16 at the Llano Library.

The Shoot for Coop Sporting Clay Event will be held at Hidden Falls Adventure Park (east of Marble Falls on Hwy 1431) on Saturday, March 18. Money raised at the event will go to the Cooper Despain Memorial Scholarship Fund, benefiting students from Marble Falls High School, Burnet High School and Hearne Academy. Call 830-613-9350 for details.

The Buchanan YF&I will hold its annual Fish Fry Fundraiser from 11 to 2 on Saturday, March 18.

Scatterthought

I admit it, I cheated this week, and went on a three-day vacation in Massachusetts and Rhode Island with my globe-trotting flight attendant daughter. The week's paper will be sadly lacking in new pictures, but my plan is to fill it up with photos from last spring's highlights as sort of a celebration of “Spring Around the Lakes.” I do feel some regret at missing the Buchanan Chamber’s “Las Vegas Night” and a couple of good music events, but I really enjoyed my amazing vacation in Massachusetts and Rhode Island with my globe-trotting flight attendant daughter. I lived on the eastern edge of Pittsfield, Mass., from 1965 to 1969, and have wonderful memories from those years. We were on the last street of a then-new subdivision, and just a few hundred feet away was an unused “tarmacked” and a wooded hill—the perfect playground for a hyperactive ten-year-old. Our yard became the headquarters for neighborhood games of hide-and-seek and kick-the-can, with thirty or more kids sometimes participating. It was like a Norman Rockwell neighborhood to me.

Of course, I wasn't driving back to Pittsfield, and most of our family trips were to upstate New York to see family friends, or to home, where my grandparents lived. I had seen Boston once from the back seat of our '63 Chevy wagon, but never explored it. And I had never been to Rhode Island, for me the last unvisited state east of the Mississippi River. I made sure to eschew the boring on Monday, and even stopped in Coventry to see the old home of General Nathanael Greene. I have pictures to prove it! I still have three of the “lower 48” states to visit: Wisconsin, North Dakota and Oregon; but it was quite a big deal for me to cross off one more from my “bucket list” this week. And it was great to explore Boston and visit my old hometown of Pittsfield. I hope you'll enjoy the paper despite the lack of attention paid to it as go-speed.

I already finished my “Upcoming Events” pages (they are the next in line after the first pages in my weekly routine), but I have a couple of items that I hadn't noticed in time (and a couple of other items that I want to remember).

The Hiawatha Humane Society will have adoptable animals on hand for a “Show and Shine” at Ace Hardware in Horseshoe Bay (7756 FM 5147) from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. this Saturday (March 11). For more info call the shelter at 512-793-5683 or check us out online at www.hillcountryhumanesociety.org.

The Kingsland Chamber of Commerce is planning another Breakfast Club Meeting, scheduled for the morning of Wednesday, March 15, at Protea Salon & Spa. Doors open at 7:45 a.m., and the program will run from 8-9. Kingsland Hills Care Center is the month's sponsor.

The Friends of the Kingsland Library will hold their Game Day on Thursday, March 16 (see ad on page 12).

The KATTL band from Bandera, will be opening for Cameron Nelson next Friday evening at the Upton County Sound Studio in Marble Falls. They are the “heavy leather” musicians who won the Battle of the Bands at Fiesta JAM last year, and I think they deserve honorable mention here.

I want to remind you of the Burnet County Historical Commission’s “Burnet County Women of Note.” You can read biographies of each at importsnyeurl.com/WoN-2017 during the month of March, and there will be a luncheon to honor them and their families at the April 4 BCCU meeting, to be held at Burnet Episcopal Church, Lamon and Wood Street, beginning at 10:15 a.m.

The Highland Lakes Art Center is excited about this spring’s “Paint the Town” event in Marble Falls (March 28 to April 1). One of the judges for the Plein air competition is Eric Bivins, owner and Editor-in-Chief of Fine Art Connoisseur magazine.

The Llano Art Guild is looking for entries in its Spring Fling Art Show, scheduled for April 29 to May 6. The event will begin with a “Plein Air Paint Out” (Continued on page 12)

This spring’s bluebonnet crop has not reached its peak, but there are some indications, like this patch in front of Drace Vacation Camp in Kingsland, that 2017 will be a very good year.

This opportunistic blue heron took advantage of a rise in the Llano River last spring to get some fishing in at the flooded Kingsland Slab.

The panorama from Kingsland’s scenic overlook (on Hwy 1431) looked almost enchanted on a lazy Easter morning last spring. The sun was just beginning to break through the fog when this photo was taken.

Burnet’s celebration of Spring

The ultimate celebration of “Spring” in the Highland Lakes area is Burnet’s fabulous Bluebonnet Festival, held the second weekend of April each year. This photo shows part of the 2016 parade.

These well-dressed canines were part of the Friday evening Pet Parade at last year’s Bluebonnet Festival in Burnet.

The riders from Fort Hood’s 1st Cavalry are regular Bluebonnet Festival participants. After riding in the Grand Parade, they put on an impressive show of horsemanship and weapons skills at the Wallace Riddell Park in Burnet.

The Kingsland Genealogical Society of The Highland Lakes will present a program on "We Vault Records: Locating Birth and Death Subsistence." The program will be presented by Terri Flach, a 5th generation Texan and a genealogy and historical researcher, consultant, and lecturer. Terri serves on the board of directors of the Federation of Genealogical Societies as Vice President for Administration. Terri chairs the Texas State Genealogical Society's Records Preservation and Access Committee and serves as the Texas state liaison to the national RPAC. Terri serves on the Texas Historical Records Advisory Board, a state-level board dedicated to the preservation and use of Texas documentary heritage.

Join us on Tuesday, March 14th, 2-4 p.m., at the Kingsland Library, located at 125 West Polk Street, Kingsland, for this important and informative program. Refreshments will be served. For more information, contact Shirley Shaw at (303) 365-7076. Everyone is welcome!

Most of the participants at last Saturday's Walk-A-Dog-a-Thon were already on the trails at Johnson Park before this picture was taken around 10:45 a.m., but more were constantly arriving. The upbeat event, which included a softball tournament this year, raised money to help the Highland Lakes SPCA save local shelter cogs.

Sam Stacks had his head shaved by Sarah Lamb at a "ST Baldric's" fundraising event, held last Saturday at Brass Hall in Marble Falls to raise money for children's cancer research. The event attracted a good crowd and raised more than $13,000. Similar events have been going on around the country since 2001; Marble Falls supporters started their own event in 2013.

Out on April 29, followed by an artists' reception that evening. See www.lanowinfarnam.com for details.

That same evening (April 29), the excellent Eagles tribute band, Already Gone, will be performing at the Lannex Theater. I heartily recommend it to anyone who ever enjoyed the music of The Eagles.

I hope that you've already seen my pictures from previous L.E.A.F. events on pages 1 and 2. This is an amazing new event in Llano, and one that really is worth visiting. It starts on Friday, but Saturday is really the best day, if you can only make one trip. Details can be found online at www.lannexartcenter.org.

I'll be taking pictures all weekend again, and I hope to get back to my history articles and other stories before next week. Thanks for your patience; I hope you have a wonderful week!
The excellent band from Hardin-Simmons University, which includes the highly-acclaimed “Cowboy Band,” a Jazz Ensemble and the Civic Orchestra of Abilene, came to Burnet High School for a concert on Tuesday afternoon.

Well-known Texas musician Bart Crow made a Thursday night appearance at Brass Hall in Marble Falls last week. The music venue on 3rd Street has brought quite a few big name musicians to Marble Falls in recent months. Follow them on Facebook for info on future events.

A new Llano band called “AvoCADros Number” (Amy Fowler, McKenzie Jones, Ken Fawlor and Corby Rusche) made its debut at Fuel Coffee House last Thursday evening.
