Demolition began on Monday at the 52-year-old Highland Lakes Shopping Center in Kingsland. This photo shows the last gasps of Chuck Lacallade’s longtime law office on Tuesday afternoon. The two-story bank building remained at press time on Wednesday; it will be torn down more carefully to avoid damaging the front wall, with its iconic Highland Lakes mosaic map. That wall will be preserved in place and incorporated into the design of the new Prosperity Bank, to be built directly behind it in coming months. For more photos, see page 4 or find the “Highland Lakes Weekly” Facebook page.

The Bluebonnet Chorale will be "Singing the Blues" at Lakeshore Library next Monday, May 1, at 2:30 p.m., with a collection of upbeat songs related to the color blue. The program is free and open to the public, and refreshments will be served. Space is limited, so please call the library at 325-379-1174 to reserve your spot.

A Relay for Life Survivor’s Dinner will be held on May 5 at Hill Country (Continued on page 10)
Scatterthought

I have had a lot of amazing days in my lifetime, so I wouldn’t dare to say that last Saturday was the best, or even one of the top ten. But as far as the variety of interesting pictures (interesting to me, at least), Saturday had to be one of the best days I remember.

I was already feeling really good from two events on Friday night. I thought the Special Needs Adult Prom at Hill Country Fellowship was wonderful, and I was really proud of the people who made it happen. Then I was very much impressed with the acting of my friend, Graham Avery, who played the troubled man accused of murder in “Murder Wapap” at Hill Country Community Theatre.

Then I was able to sleep in a little on Saturday, so I wasn’t too tired when I started my rounds on Saturday morning. The first stop was the great car show on the Burnet square, and there was an extra bonus there when I met cinematographer Shane Kelly, who was filming parts of the event for a Moon Shine Tea commercial.

I stayed there longer than I had planned, so I had to hurry back to Kingsland for the Lake Fest at King-

Kings Village, a great place to eat with the kids, where the night before I had enjoyed a fantastic dinner at the new restaurant, “The Pint.”

al. Unfortunately, I got there in time to take pictures of the classic cars being performed by my friends from the Burnet Gunfighters (another very photogenic group). An interesting side note: there was the presence of normally very-respectable principal Elon Pushe, who played the role of a “tho-

The Covet 416 Senior care facility of Horseshoe Bay will hold a ribbon-cutting at 3 p.m. next Tuesday, May 2. The facility is located at 26409 Hwy 71 East, next door to the Horseshoe Bay Yeehaw Cafe. In the dining room.

The Highland Lakes Chili Pod invites everyone to come join the 14th annual “Hotch-Potch-in-a-bowl” of the Hotch-Potch Chili Championship. Held on Saturday, May 6, at Johnson Park in Marble Falls. Cooks from anywhere in Burnet County are invited, and judges are needed to taste the best chili and BBQ in the world. For more information contact Carrie Kinsella at 512-258-4348.

The 2017 Burnet Farmers and Craft Market will open on Main Street of the historic Burnet square on May 6th every Saturday until November 18th. 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. If you are interested in being a vendor or need more information, please contact Rosanne Dunagan at 512-939-3306, email roxdunagan@gmail.com.

A ‘Marvelous Moms’ Sip and Shop event is being held by the Family Community Center. The event will be held on May 11 at the Kingsland Community Center. The event will be a fun night out, and it will benefit the Family Community Center. Call Teresa Gray at 512-423-0113 for more details.

One of the oldest golf courses in the Highland Lakes area (Blue Lake Golf Club) will celebrate its 55th anniversary this year! It will host a Benefit Rally at 2 p.m. on Saturday, May 13. Go to www.bluelakegolfclub.com or call the pro shop at (830) 599-5524 for registration info.

More than 30 students from Faith Academy’s high school fine arts classes have been invited to display their award-winning artwork at the Niume Gallery Cookie Coffee Roastery, located at 715 E. FM 1431 in Marble Falls. The exhibit will remain on display through early August, 2017.
Heavy equipment from Maynard Construction Co. was in place last weekend, and actual demolition of the shopping center behind the 1965 Highland Lakes Bank began Monday morning. The photo at right shows the former Highland Barber Shop on Tuesday morning, just before it, too, was knocked down.

By Tuesday afternoon, just part of Chuck Lacallade’s former law office wall was standing, and a mass of rubble filled the site of the shopping center. Built in 1965, the shopping center effectively moved the center of Kingsland a mile west, and for decades served as the hub of Kingsland’s economy and social life. For the past several years, the bank and shopping center had been showing their age, and a modern bank on the site will be a definite upgrade.

This architect’s drawing of the planned new Prosperity Bank shows the iconic front wall with its mosaic map of the Highland Lakes (at the right side of the sketch), to be preserved and incorporated into the design of the new bank. More recent renderings show attractive landscaping around the building.

Kingsland's thriving new charter school (Kingsland School, “Home of the Lakers”) held a “Laker Fest” open house on its campus a block north of Highway 1431 (136 Real St.) last Saturday. Attractions included door prizes, field activities, community booths, vendors, safety demonstrations, the Crime Stoppers portable jail cell, and a comical wild west shootout by the Burnet Gunfighters.

Dozens of eager children were “sworn in” as temporary deputies by “Sheriff” Tex Copsetta of the Burnet Gunfighters before the show began. Among the costumed characters in the exit was none other than Kingsland School Principal Meloni Puishes! (The big-eared character in the center of this photo is the mascot for Hill Country Area Crime Stoppers.)

The event seemed to be a big success, as has been most of the first year at Kingsland School. The school opened with grades K-6, and will add 7th grade this fall. A separate high school is planned for 2020.

Commissioner Mike Sandoval (Llano County Pct. #3) has been very active in communicating with constituents in Kingsland. Here, he addresses the Tuesday afternoon meeting of the Friends of the Kingsland Library.

A crowd gathered for the Windwood Tenants Association’s Yard Sale/Bake Sale Fundraiser, held last Friday and Saturday.

Representatives from Lambda Nu sorority, Seton Hospital and Usborne Books gathered at The Place Downtown in Kingsland as part of their Book Drive for the Seton Care-A-Van. In addition to providing low-or-no-cost healthcare for students from low-income families, the Care-A-Van offers a free book to every patient!
Liano’s Crawfish Open attracted huge crowds to Robinson Park once again for the two-day community party. Thousands of pounds of crawfish were consumed, and continuous live music added to the festive atmosphere.

Dozens of volunteers, including these cheerful servers at lunchtime on Saturday, helped make the Crawfish Open successful once again last weekend.

This is just part of the lunchtime crowd in the Robinson Park pavilion for the Crawfish Open on Saturday, and the crowd was even larger for that evening’s concert with Kyle Park (see photo on page 13).

Inspector Freemont (Don Jacks) and Jessica Bligh (Katherine Clay) interrogate murder suspect Charley Mirren (Graham Avery) during the Hill Country Community Theatre’s excellent presentation of the suspenseful “Murder Weapon” last Friday night. The show will continue for two more weekends.

The Marble Falls High School theatre students showed off their award-winning production of “Alice!” last Saturday evening.

Philip Smith brought his “St. Paul Speaks” dramatization, complete with an authentic-looking prison cell and chains, to Hill Country Fellowship in Burnet last Saturday.

A capacity crowd of Young Life supporters attended a light-hearted but moving fund-raiser at Highland Lakes United Methodist Church in Buchanan Dam on Monday evening.

Home Improvements

Standard decks, 20’ X 16’ for $3000.00 (as well as any other carpentry needs)
A crowd of volunteers welcomed special-needs adults to a special “prom” event at Hill Country Fellowship in Burnet last Friday night.

Guests were honored, pampered and treated to an excellent meal with “pals” from Hill Country Fellowship.

Special guest Hannah Farmer posed for pictures in the photo booth (complete with a variety of props, including crowns, glasses and fake mustaches) with her mother, Dixie Farmer.

As part of the Music Camp, we will be producing

That's So Daniel, a dynamic children's musical. We will present this musical to the public on Friday, June 23, 2017 (6:00pm).

Throughout the week, Campers will be learning music, assisting in production, designing and decorating props and set-up.

NOTE: Audition for some special parts takes place ahead of time, to give more time to learn the parts. Please let us know if your child is interested.
