Without any weather worries in the covered arena at JLK Event Center, the Llano County Rodeo attracted an overflow crowd despite predictions of storms last Saturday. The rodeo was last weekend’s biggest event, but there were many more activities all around the Highland Lakes area (see inside pages). The Burnet County Fair is scheduled for this weekend, and the Soapbox Classic in Marble Falls on the following weekend. Kingsland’s huge Aqua Boom festival is just three weeks away. Many more photos from last weekend’s events can be seen on the “Highland Lakes Weekly” Facebook page.

If your kids are worrying you more than your spouse, you may be interested in a series of powerful presentations (also on Tuesdays) called “Healthy Choices,” to be offered (at no cost) by the YWCA of Austin, in partnership with the Burnett and Llano school districts and the Boys & Girls Club of the Highland Lakes, at the Kingsland Community Center from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. on June 20, July 11, July 25, August 8, and August 22. The goal of these “Positive Action” presentations is to empower youth to resist the dangers of substance abuse and encourage them to make healthy choices. The YWCA is also offering Media Literacy Training at the Marble Falls Public Library from 2 to 3 p.m. on June 26. For more information, contact Chloe Roper at (512) 326-1222 or croper@ywcaausin.org.

Some of the Llano area’s finest artists, including Carla Sanchez and Daniel Adams, will be teaching drawing and painting with watercolors and acrylics at a three-session Art Camp sponsored by the Llano Fine Arts Guild. The dates are July 12, 19 & 26 (from 9 to 11 a.m. each day). The Art Camp is for children 7 to 12 years of age, and the price is $15 per class or $35 per class if all three are attended ($45 for two classes). If you have any questions please feel free to call or text Laura Corzine at 832-444-2327.

Area non-profits are invited to apply for grants from the Highland Lakes Legacy Fund (deadline is August 25; information and applications may be found at www.highlandlakeslegacy.org).

I forgot to include Karen Mayfield’s classified ad in last week’s paper, so I want to call extra attention to it this week. She has some beautiful Catahoulas! Heeler puppies for sale, look for her ad on page 14 (I made sure it’s there this week!).

Well, there’s not much “fluff” so far, but I do want to mention my magazine distribution this past weekend. In between photo ops in Burnett and Llano Counties, I tried to get copies of the new “Kingsland, Texas” magazine to area Chambers of Commerce, and to as many of the advertisers as I could. Since my schedule was dictated by the photo ops, it was kind of “hit and miss” for the advertisers. If you didn’t get any copies yet, they are at all the Chamber offices, at the Kingsland post office, and other businesses around Kingsland. On Monday, I drove to West Texas, delivering magazines all the way to and from Odessa. If this paper seems more disorganized than usual, that’s my excuse.

Car enthusiasts from Lake Area Rods and Classics brought a great selection of unique automobiles to their monthly Friday Night Fever event on the Burnet square last Friday (always the first Friday of the month, from 5 p.m. to sunset).

A good crowd of shoppers perused the variety of wares available during the Market Day on Main in Marble Falls last Saturday.

Lance Armstrong (in black shirt and helmet) led hundreds of bicyclists on a “WIEU Hundred” 100-mile road ride last Saturday morning around Lake Buchanan, starting and finishing at Reveille Peak Ranch (on the east side of the lake).
Riders with flags led the excellent Rodeo Parade in downtown Llano last Saturday morning.

The Llano VFD’s old fire truck served as a charming parade float in last Saturday’s Rodeo Parade.

Teachers who were honored at last winter’s Chamber Banquet as “Educators of the Year” from Llano County schools were honored again on Saturday as they rode in the Rodeo Parade.
Fast movement in the relatively dim light of Llano’s JLK Arena made “action shots” hard to come by, but the overflow crowd at the Llano County Rodeo saw plenty of exciting action, and the covered arena protected them from the rain showers that fell around the Highland Lakes area last weekend. The still-fairly-new event center has proven to be a valuable addition to the Llano economy, and a great venue for community events.

Les Hartman got Saturday night’s rodeo off to a great start with his rendition of the national anthem.

It’s not especially good news because Susan Batt, of Kingsland, is now on hospice care, but her family credits the Nativis Voyager (which she is wearing in the photo above with her daughter, Alisha), with adding years to her life, and would like others who may be diagnosed with glioblastoma to be aware of this targeted, ultra-low radio frequency energy device which seems to have helped her so much (without the side effects and hassles of more orthodox treatment). The device has been FDA-approved for safety, but not for efficacy.
