The highlights of Kingsland’s huge Independence Day celebration were the parades (Children’s Parade, Land Parade and Boat Parade) and the spectacular fireworks show (pictured above), but there were great events beginning on Friday evening and continuing through the long holiday weekend. A brief rain cooled things down on Saturday morning, and temperatures never did get as high as in recent years; there were good (and cheerful) crowds at all the events. See inside pages for lots more pictures!

The Falls on the Colorado Museum (on West Broadway in Marble Falls) will host its annual Founders Day event from 1 to 4 p.m. this Saturday.

By JOHN HALLOWELL

Marble Falls merchants and art galleries will host their First Friday Art Walk along Main Street on the evening of Friday, July 7.

The Marble Falls Rotary Club will host its 68th Annual Fish Fry at the Lakeside Pavilion, beginning at 6 p.m. on Friday, July 7. The Stray Cats band will provide live music from 8 to 10. See www.marblefallsrotary.org for more details.

The Llano Community Theatre group will present “Big Bad” in three shows at the Llano Junior High auditorium (7 p.m. on Friday, July 7, and 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. on Saturday, July 8). The production imagines the trial of the most notorious criminal in the fairy-tale world: the Big Bad Wolf.

The Llano Uplift Chapter of the National Society Daughters of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Bluebonnet Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution will be hosting a US Constitution Camp for children aged 7 to 11 (and their parents) from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Thursday, July 7, and noon to 4 p.m. on Friday, July 8, at the Llano Uplift Chapter of the National Society of Daughters of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Bluebonnet Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution.

The Falls on the Colorado Museum will celebrate Marble Falls Founders Day from 1 to 4 on Saturday, July 8.

Kids can make their own custom name plaques at the Kingdom House of Arts and Crafts this Saturday (11 to 4 p.m.) using pre-cut letters and sanddollar wooden plaques. They can decorate their name plates with paint, beads, and maybe even some sparkles! Call 325-386-6159 to reserve a spot.

Darrell McCull and Tony Booth will be the featured performers at the Llano Country Opry. The show starts at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, July 8. Tickets are now on sale at www.heartofexcoutr.com or by calling (325) 247-5554.

The Lutie Watkins Memorial United Methodist Church, in Llano, will host its Maker Fun Factory (“Created by God; Built for a Purpose”) Vacation Bible School from 9 to 11:45 a.m. on Monday through Thursday, July 10-13.

The First Baptist Church in Kingsland will host its Gadgetz and Gizmos VBS (“Uniquely Wired, Wonderfully Made”) for kids aged 4 to 5th grade from 9 to noon on Monday to Friday next week (July 10-14).

The Llano Fine Arts Guild’s Art Camp, for children 7 to 12 years old, will be held from 9 to 11 a.m. on Wednesdays (July 12, 19 & 26). Please call or text Laura Corzine at 832-444-2327 for details.

The Marble Falls Open/Pro Rodeo will be held on Friday and Saturday evenings, July 14 and 15 (slack July 13, Youth Rodeo July 12).

The Highland Lakes Writers’ Club will meet at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, July 13, at the Falls on the Colorado Museum in Marble Falls. A brief business session will be held at 7 p.m., followed by readings until 9 p.m.

A Creative Arts Fair will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, July 15, at the Alexander Center of St. John the Evangelist (on Hwy 1431 East in Marble Falls). Call 830-693-3134 for details.

The YMCA in Burnet will host a free “Christmas in July Dive-In Movie” (How the Grinch Stole Christmas), in the pool area at dusk on Saturday, July 15.

The First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Burnet will host a free concert by Brooks Crossing at 3 p.m. on Sunday, July 16. For more information, call 512-756-2223.

The Llano Art Gallery will host an Art Party from 6 to 9 p.m. on Tuesday, July 18. Cheryl Quallenberg will lead (Continued on page 10)
It was the best of times. Period.

If anything at all went wrong this past week, it escaped my notice (or I just forgot). The “Twelve Days of Aqua Boom” (more or less) are over, and my head is still spinning, but I would have to say that it was a tremendous success!

Two of the most amazing news items I heard this week (and one of them wasn’t an Aqua Boom item) were: 1) The visit of the Publishers Clearing House crew to Kingsland, and 2) the spectacular generosity of KLBJ radio personality Chris Heerlein.

Publishers Clearing House stopped at H.E.B. in Kingsland to get helium for the celebratory balloons they presented (along with a bottle of champagne and a $1 million “check”) to a Buchanan Dam woman last Friday. (See, they really do exist. This is NOT “fake news!”)

Chris Heerlein, who co-hosts the “Retire Ready” radio show with Sandra Newman every Saturday (I believe they are also co-owners of Reap Financial), has a vacation home here in Kingsland, and visits frequently. He was impressed by the Aqua Boom festival, and came by the Chamber office at the lakeside park on Tuesday to buy THREE THOUSAND raffle tickets! There was no guarantee that he would win, but he was richly rewarded for his generosity when the newly-crowned Miss Aqua Boom, Amber Dyess, drew one of his tickets and earned him the beautiful new Sea Doo from Highland Lakes Watercraft.

That amazing purchase completed the sell-out of the 7,000 raffle tickets, but much credit is due to the Chamber volunteers who sat outside in the heat to sell tickets for the past few weeks, and also to the pageant contestants who sold tickets as part of their competition. Teen Miss Jett Gold was the champion in that part of the competition (and apparently in others; she beat some excellent competitors to earn her title) and sold more than $1,400 worth of tickets.

The little “downtime” I was counting on, after hectic days from Wednesday through Saturday, was highlighted by a visit from my son and daughter-in-law. That welcome event forced some emergency house-cleaning and other preparations; they then left their dog with me on Monday while they went to Schlitterbahn! Shadow is a good dog, and we became great friends, but I didn’t accomplish much (or get much rest) that day, either.

Tuesday was the big day, and the day I still remember clearly. An afternoon nap saved me from total collapse, and I was able to really enjoy the spectacular fireworks show which capped off the big weekend.

Now I’m trying to regroup and prepare for the next few weeks. I’m sure I’ve forgotten some of the things I was supposed to mention, but I do have a list of important items.

The Falls on the Colorado Museum once again will celebrate Marble Falls Founders Day from 1 to 4 p.m. Saturday, I put it in the “Upcoming Events” article this week, but it had somehow escaped my notice up until now, and I want to mention it as much as I can.

St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church will hold its annual Creative Arts Fair next Saturday (July 15). Some of the items for sale include unique mosaic art, jewelry and recipe boxes of exotic woods; a variety of aprons, microwave bowls, rugs, larpel crosses; one-of-a-kind jewelry, handmade rosaries, sea glass angels and more.

The Hill Country Community Theatre will present “9 to 5: The Musical” from July 20 through August 6. Performances will be at 7:30 p.m. on Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays and 2:15 p.m. on Sundays. Based on the hit movie with music and lyrics by Dolly Parton, “9 to 5” is a story of friendship and revenge in the Roostered era. The title song has become the working woman’s anthem.

My friend Dana Wright, from Llano, has written a new book called “Saving Stories: Afternoons with Darrell.” It comes from a series of interviews with local legend Darrell Stuebler, who wrote a bunch of songs for George Strait, including the #1 hit, “A Fire I Can’t Put Out.” Darrell, who is also one of my good friends from Llano, has a lot of fascinating stories to tell. I’m eagerly awaiting the autographed copy of the book that Dana promised me (and I’ll tell you more about it when I read it).

This is probably enough for now. I’ll try to catch up on the other things by next week.

Participants in the Kingsland Library’s Summer Reading Club were honored at a special Awards Ceremony last Friday.

Golfers scatter around the course at Lighthouse Country Club in Kingsland at the start of this year's Aqua Boom Golf Tournament last Saturday morning.

Also at the Lighthouse Country Club, a crowd of cookers gathered on Saturday afternoon to hear the results of the judging in the Steak, BBQ and Chili Cook-Offs, held there last Friday and Saturday.

The winners: Mike Mercado and Carlos Salazar, of Monster Grillers, won Grand Champion honors at the BBQ Cook-Off last Saturday. Mike Sargent, of Bubba Fat'z BBQ, won Reserve Grand Champion.

Church volunteers served a crowd of veterans and family members at Chapel of the Hills for the well-attended Veterans Dinner last Friday evening. The event helped kick off Kingsland’s huge Independence Day celebration.

The Aqua Boom Choir and the Highland Lakes Brass ensemble joined for a Patriotic Concert on Sunday evening at the First Baptist Church in Kingsland. The concert was preceded by a community supper there, which raised money for His Joshua House.

The popular River Rst Revus band played their classic rock & roll music for a street dance in front of the First United Bank on Monday night, the only official “Aqua Boom” activity on July 3.

Winners from the Baby Show Contest posed with their proud mothers on Saturday morning.
Tuesday’s Aqua Boom activities began with a colorful Children’s Parade on RR 2900.

Brigitte Alston, a former Houstonite who recently moved to Kingsland from Flippin, Arkansas, brought her classic Bentley to the car show in front of Security State Bank on Tuesday.

Emma Turner helped the Friends of Kingsland Library determine their raffle winner by pulling a ticket from the tumbler during the Aqua Boom car show at Security State Bank. The winner received a gas grill, 25 pounds of beef and other prizes; proceeds benefit the Kingsland Library.
The Land Parade began at 10 a.m. on Tuesday with a procession of police cars and fire trucks, followed by a long line of unique vehicles and floats. Parade Marshal Chuck Lacallade rode in an elegant coach (below).

At left: Some of the entries in the Boat Parade lined up nicely for this long-distance shot soon after leaving the starting point at the Llano River Arm, near the 1431 bridge. The patriotically-decorated boats followed the lake’s Llano River Arm to the 2900 bridge.

Pet of the Week

Sheva wants to meet you at the Hill Country Humane Society. She is a 2-and-a-half year old Shepherd mix who weighs about 44 pounds. Sheva is a great dog that loves people and playing with her dog pals. She is looking for that perfect family to take her home.

If you would like more information on Sheva or any of our other wonderful animals looking for their very own homes, contact HCFS at 512-793-5463 or visit our website at www.hillcountryhumaneorganization.org. The shelter is open Thursday through Monday, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Arts & Craft Show at this year’s Aqua Boom, held behind M & M Donuts on RR 1431, featured live music (Jim Halfpenny is pictured at left), pony rides, an inflatable slide and bounce house, plus a great variety of vendors.

A steady stream of visitors and shoppers checked out the variety of quality products (many of them handcrafted) available at the Arts & Crafts Show. The show was open on Saturday and Sunday.
