A good crowd gathered at the Lakeside Pavilion on Monday, September 11, for the Marble Falls Noon Rotary Club's annual Day of Remembrance, held this year in conjunction with the "Remembering Our Fallen" exhibit hosted there for the weekend by Clements-Wilcox Funeral Home to honor the nearly 600 Texans killed in the War on Terror since 2001. This photo was taken just before the ceremony began at noon. See more photos on page 7 and on the "Highland Lakes Weekly" Facebook page.

History writer Cynthia Leas Munsey will share her love of history and the story of the “Death of a Texas Ranger” during the Marble Falls Public Library’s Lunch at the Library program on Friday, September 15 (beginning at 11:30 a.m.). The event is free, but reservations are required as seating is limited. Please stop by the library or call 830-692-3023.

Dinosaur George will bring his traveling museum to the Burnet Community Center (401 E. Jackson St.) on Friday and Saturday, September 15 and 16. The exhibit will be open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. The event is free, and reservations are not required. Dinosaur George will be on hand to answer questions and interact with your children.

Buchanan VFD’s annual BBQ fundraiser will be held at the Red Barn Community Center in Buchanan Dam on the evening of Saturday, September 16. The drawing for the big raffle (11 great prizes) will be held at 6 p.m. Tickets are available now, and you need not be present to win.

The American Cancer Society’s Hill Country Relay for Life event will be held from 2 p.m. to midnight on Saturday, September 16, at Johnson Park in Marble Falls. The event will feature a variety of activities, including live music, food, and family fun.

The Lambda Nu sorority will sponsor a Charity Bingo Night from 5:30-8 p.m. on Monday, September 18, at the Place Downtown in Kingsland (across from the post office). The event is free, and donations will benefit the Happy Dog Adoption in Buchanan Dam.

Baylor Scott & White Health will present a free program on Diabetes & Carb Counting at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, September 19, at the Llano Library. To reserve your place, please call the library at 325-247-5248. A healthy snack and beverage will be provided.

The Hill Country Community Theatre will present “Senior Moments” from September 21 to October 8 (Thursday, Friday, and Saturday 7:30 p.m., Sunday 2:15).

The always-popular Matt Wilson Band will open the Spicewood Arts Society’s new season with a 7 p.m. show on Friday, September 22 at the Spicewood Vineyards Event Center. Matt and his band play vibrant classic soul, funk, rock, and R & B. They’ve appeared at two previous Spicewood Arts Society (SAS) concerts.

Camp Agape (for children grieving the loss of a loved one) will hold its 5K memorial run at 8 a.m. on Saturday, September 23, at Johnson Park in Marble Falls. The fundraiser will allow children between the ages of 7 and 12 to attend Camp Agape at no cost to their families. To learn more about the run, visit the organization’s website at www.campagape.com. A balloon release ceremony will occur upon completion of the race; the Lake Area Rods and Classes Car Club will be returning to this year’s race with classic cars and (another) sizable donation.

The Marble Falls Daybreak Rotary Club will host their annual Sporting Clays Shoot, beginning at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, September 23, at the Copperhead Creek Shooting Club, a few miles west of Marble Falls. Sign up for tickets at www.marblefallsdayoutbreak.org.

The Casie VFD will host a 40 Years of Service celebration (including a BBQ lunch) from 11 to 2 on Saturday, September 23.

The Highland Lakes Family Crisis Center will host its annual Golf Tournament and Silent Auction at the Lighthouse Country Club in Kingsland on Saturday, September 23 (12:30 p.m. shotgun start). The Hill Country Humane Society’s 20th annual Wags and Whiskers Gala will be held from 6 to 10 p.m. on Saturday, September 23, at Hill Country Hall in Buchanan Dam.

The Annual Community Banquet will benefit the Llano Christian Academy.
Scatterthought

There are weeks when I really, really wish that I had more pages to work with. It’s not that I have too much idle time on my hands; it’s just that I have so much material that I’d love to share with you. This is one of those weeks.

Of course, I’m at my most productive when I’m a little behind schedule, and I started Saturday perfectly by sleeping thirty minutes longer than I had planned (I had stayed out too late the night before). Once I got on the road (not until 9 a.m.), it was 12 hours of hurrying from one great photo up to another.

The biggest event was the spectacular Highland Lakes Air Show, and I did stay there taking pictures for almost three hours. But the high point of the weekend was the wonderful homecoming of one hundred Vietnam veterans who had been on an Honor Flight to Washington, D.C. I covered Austin events, but my friend George Banks (from Burnet) was on that flight, and he had invited me to come to the “Welcome Home” celebration. I am thankful for his invitation, and very thankful that I made the hurried (but perfectly timed) trip to the airport.

If you were in attendance, you saw the cheering at every stop every veteran made. There was standing room only as the heroes were honored. The event, of course, was not the first time the veterans have been honored, but it was a wonderful event! I think my record (set when I was a little younger) is fourteen events covered in one Saturday. I “only” covered eleven last Saturday, and I missed two that I had planned on attending. One was the Golf “Fore” Life tournament at Lighthouse Country Club, which started at the same time as the air show, and the other was the car show in Lampasas. That’s not in my territory, but at least two of my friends were there (Bill Edwards with his custom hot rod, and Robbis Storm with his “Elderly Brothers” band), and I thought I’d try to squeeze it in between Kids Day Out and the skydivers who kicked off the air show. I was too far behind by then, and had to stay in Burnet.

I was pretty near brain-dead by Sunday, I forgot all about the 30th anniversary of Highland Lakes United Methodist Church (in Buchanan Dam), and didn’t remember the 9/11 Prayer Walk in Burnet (scheduled for 1 p.m.) until I was leaving Llano at about 12:45. I really did mean to be there, too.

But even with the age-related shortcomings, I had a memorable weekend. It is truly a privilege to live here in the Highland Lakes area and to have a job which allows me (and sometimes even forces me) to attend all these great events.

Now it’s “back to business.” The Hill Country Community Theatre in Cottonwood Shores is looking for a volunteer. They need a drummer, a bass player, a light board operator and a sound board operator for the upcoming production of Senior Moments. There are 12 performances over three weeks - September 21 through October 8, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays with a 7:30 PM curtain, and Sunday matinees with a 2:15 curtain. Mandatory dress rehearsals will be in the evenings on Mondays, September 18, Tuesday 9/19 and Wednesday 9/20. If you are available, please call 830-939-2474 or email director@thecoth.org.

The Bluebonnet Chorale has started rehearsals for its 2017-2018 season. This group of about 50 “women who love to sing” has been entertaining people of the Highland Lakes since 1998. They rehearse every Monday at 2 p.m. at The Church at Horseshoe Bay. They are always eager to welcome new singers (no auditions necessary, but a love of music is required!) This fall they will be joining other community groups for a fund raiser event in October to benefit the Hill Country Community Theater.

Individuals considering joint replacement surgery are invited to a free Destination Restore program presentation on Thursday, September 21 at 6:00 pm at the Galleria at the Mall of the Frio, 221 East FM 1431. Pre-registration is required by calling 830-693-3272 or emailing info@hillcountryrecovery.com.

Longhorn Resort’s last weekend

Fishing guide Raymond Cantu and Purple Heart veteran Omar Hernandez (right), who has undergone 26 surgeries since he was wounded by an IED in Iraq, pose with fish they caught during Steven Sweeney’s “Headwaters for Heroes” event last weekend at Kingsland’s Longhorn Resort. The event was the last of its kind at the familiar Lake LBJ property, which is now closed and scheduled for demolition.

Jeff Smithart and Justin Heflin provided live entertainment for guides, veterans and family members at Longhorn Resort last Friday night.

The Longhorn Resort property was purchased last spring by Boat Town, from Austin, and will soon be rebuilt as a boat dealership, marina, and family-style restaurant at the on the east side of the 2900 bridge. The decades-old cabins are slated for demolition; a special sale of refrigerators, air conditioners and other furnishings will be held this weekend (see “Longhorn Resort Closing Sale” ad on page 14).

Above and left: The Spicewood VFD-EMS annual Destruction Derby was once again a huge success, with nearly 30 drivers competing in front of a crowd numbering in the thousands. The annual event, which began in 1991, is the main fundraiser for Spicewood’s first responders.

Last Saturday’s “Texas Strong Fitness Strong Hurricane Relief 2017” event, held by a group of area fitness centers at Marble Falls High School’s football stadium, raised more than $20,000 for the towns of Rockport, Port Aransas and Aransas Pass, which were badly damaged by Hurricane Harvey. Donations can be made at any of the participating fitness centers and online or by check to Lake Shores Church (be sure to specify “Rockport” in the memo) until September 30; the group hopes to raise $30,000 total.

On August 24, the Kingsland 4-H Club elected their first officers. They are: Emily Muenggenborg, Office Delegator; Kenzie Howell, Treasurer; Lily Carpenter, 3rd Vice President; Payton Stance, President; Riley Stence, Parliamentarian; Grace Looney, Reporter; Wes Winslett, 1st Vice President; and Raina Fry, Secretary.

At right: Texas State Representative Terry Wilson, who served more than 30 years in the U.S. Army and retired at the rank of Colonel, was the keynote speaker at the Day of Remembrance in Marble Falls on Monday. The event was held in conjunction with the “Remembering Our Fallen” exhibit at Lakeside Pavilion last weekend.

Rotarian Lorinda Peters opened the Day of Remembrance ceremony with bagpipe music. Visible behind her in this photo is a part of the “Remembering Our Fallen” exhibit, which features photos of each of the nearly 600 Texans who have died since 2001 in the nation’s War on Terror. The exhibit was sponsored by Clements-Wilcox Funeral Home.
Highland Lakes Air Show

The B-25 Mitchell “Yellow Rose” bomber (above) and the Marines’ B-25 (PBJ-1J) Devil Dog bomber (below) were two of the most popular exhibits in the static display on Saturday morning at the Commemorative Air Force hangar in Burnet.

This AT-6 Texan trainer, piloted by Aaron Taylor of “Twisted Texan Airshows” delighted the crowd at this year’s Highland Lakes Air Show with its aerobatic demonstration.

These six members of Burnet’s Cub Scout Troop #289 were some of the many volunteers who helped make this year’s Highland Lakes Air Show such a big success.

the Highland Lakes United Methodist Church. A complimentary dinner will be provided at 6 p.m., with a presentation to follow; interested individuals, spouses and friends are invited to attend. Call (866) 421-2464 for details.

The Community Collaborative, Rail, Rail, and Snow network is looking for new volunteer weather reporters in the Highland Lakes area. The Llano County Master Gardeners have invited William Ryanos, Texas State Coordinator of CoCoRaHS, to come and speak at their next monthly meeting (Thursday, September 21, at the Llano Public Library).

The Llano Library is also working with Baylors Scott & White for a Diabetes and Carb Counting program, scheduled for 2 p.m. on Tuesday, September 19. Dietician Jordan Grilling will instruct parents on how to control diabetes through proper nutrition. This is a free program, but please call the library at 325-247-2400 to reserve a seat.

Other programs at the library include free technology classes and a “How Pinteresting!” series. And starting on Thursday, September 21, the Llano Family Place PALS (Play & Learn Series) will take the place of the library’s regular Storytime for a five-week series.

The Western Trappings on the Llano exhibit will open at 5:30 p.m. on Friday, October 13, with the Meet the Artists Gala and Preview Sale. Tickets for the Artist Gala are on sale at the museum and online at www.westerntrappings.com. Come out and meet the artists, enjoy food, beverages and live music, and support your Llano Museum.

Fort Croghan Falls Homecoming Weekend is set for September 29 and 30. The Falls on the Colorado Museum (FOCM) located in the Old Granite School on Broadway’s already has imperial exhibits in place to remind former students of their days in high school. Along with that display, the Native Plant Society of Texas will have their annual meeting at FOCM from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday, October 7, with a plant sale open to the public. Museum hours are Thursday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Above: A crowd gathered at the Old Oak Square building for a Main Street Mixer in Marble Falls on Tuesday evening. There are several new businesses opening (and a lot of good things happening) in the city's historic downtown.

At left: Jack and Virginia Walker were presented with the Better Business Bureau’s Torch Award for Ethics in a special ceremony at their Sandstone Street B&B in Llano on Wednesday. The prestigious awards “bring attention to practices that generate a high level of trust among employees, customers and communities.”

Not a new business (Jeff Hopf has been in the insurance business in Llano for more than 27 years), but a new member of the Kingsland Chamber, Jeff Hopf accepts a membership plaque from Chamber representatives Louann Railey (at left in photo) and Hafid Gentry in front of his Ford Street office on Wednesday. Joining them are State Farm employees Debbie Tolle, Samantha Peck and Cindy Faubion.

George Banks, Past Commander of the Burnet VFW, posed for this picture with fellow veteran Ira Jurrells, of Georgetown, at a wonderful Welcome Home ceremony in the Austin airport for 100 Vietnam Veterans returning from an “Honor Flight” to Washington, D.C. Buchanan Arts and Crafts Guild is proud to have Jennifer Hess as a new member and Artist of the Month for September. Her profession was in architecture, but she has loved every form of art from drawing, to painting in all mediums. Jennifer studied art from a child, through college and around Europe. She took up oil painting a few years ago and uses an old 19th-century technique called “Glazing and Scumbling” to create a jewel-like effect. She says, “it is labor intensive but the end result is well worth it.” Her original work is on display at the Gallery, 17534 E. SH 29, Wed-Sat 10:00-4:00 and Sun 1:00-5:00. Kids Day Out in Burnet

The annual Kids Day Out event featured a variety of fun and educational activities provided free of charge behind the YMCA in Burnet last Saturday.

One of the attractions at Kids Day Out was the portable jail cell provided by the Hill Country Area Crime Stoppers organization.

Seton's Care-A-Van mobile clinic was another of the attractions at Burnet's Kids Day Out last Saturday.

Pet of the Week

Splendid is a 2 year old domestic short hair who weighs about seven pounds. She is patiently waiting to meet you. She is very loving and affectionate, and really needs a forever home. Can you help her?
To meet Splendid or any of her friends, please call the Hill Country Humane Society at 512-793-5463 or visit www.HillCountryHumaneSociety.org. We are open Thursday through Monday, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.
