Raising funds for a mission trip to Costa Rica next summer, talented members of the Lutie Watkins Memorial United Methodist Church in Llano served a delicious dinner and performed famous songs from Broadway hits like “Fiddler on the Roof” (above) in three dinner theater presentations of “A Taste of Broadway” last weekend (see more pictures on page 8 and lots more on the “Highland Lakes Weekly” Facebook page).

Brenham High School’s Ensemble Theater Group will present three showings of “Legally Blonde” at 7 p.m. this Thursday, Friday and Saturday (November 16-18). The Bluebonnet Chorale will present Broadway & the Blues at 2:30 p.m. on Friday, November 17 at the Lakeshore Library. Refreshments will be served, and space is limited, so please call the library at 325-379-1174 to reserve a seat.

The Friends of the Kingsland Library will hold a Book, Bake and Pecan Sale from 9 to 4 on Friday and Saturday, November 17 & 18, in the library meeting room.

Marble Falls will officially begin its Christmas season at dusk on Friday, November 17, with a lighted Christmas parade on Main Street and the opening of this year’s Walkway of Lights at Lakeside Park.

The Spicewood Arts Society’s second concert of the season Friday, November 17, will feature rising stars Collin Hauser and Stacie Jo Rosenbalm at Spicewood Vineyards (on CR 409) at 7 p.m. For tickets or information, see www.spicewoodarts.org or call 512-266-2920. Tickets may also be purchased at the door.

The Jacob Essary Band will be on stage at Brass Hall in Marble Falls from 9 p.m. to midnight on Friday, November 17.

Sweet Berry Farm (in Marble Falls) will host its “Thanksgiving Feast-in-a-Box” from 11 to 5, November 18-26. See http://sweetberrylam.com for details and reservations.

A charity golf tournament to help pay for Bryan Weeks’ medical expenses (see ad on page 2) will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, November 18, at Lighthouse Country Club in Kingsland.

The Native Plant Society will host a “Butterflies and Native Wildflowers” program at 1 p.m. on Saturday, November 18, at the Marble Falls Library. The speaker will be Park Interpreter and Naturalist Craig Hensley, from Guadalupe River State Park.

The Hill Country Music Jam will be held from 1 to 8 p.m. this Saturday at the Valentine Lakeside resort in Kingsland (on Ezel Moore Drive).

The Spicewood and Highland Lakes Lions Club will host a Spaghetti Dinner fundraiser from 5 to 8 p.m. on Saturday, November 18, at the Methodist Church in Marble Falls.

Camp Peniel and Marble Falls First Baptist will host a Hill Country Harvest dinner and comedy show (featuring Ken Davis) to honor military personnel and first responders from 5:15 to 8:45 p.m. on Saturday, November 18.

Chapel of the Hills (in Buchanan Dam) will host its annual Community Thanksgiving Dinner at noon on Sunday, December 19; Llano’s Community Thanksgiving will be held at Lutie Watkins Memorial United Methodist Church, and Kingsland’s First Baptist Church will hold its own Community Thanksgiving Dinner at 6 that evening.

Charlotte Dilworth’s annual “After-Turkey Trot” will be held behind Kingsland Health and Fitness Center at 8 a.m. on Friday, November 24 (the day after Thanksgiving). A new wrinkle this year will be a bicycle award to one boy and one girl, all participants aged 5-12 will have their names entered in the drawing.

Llano’s “Starry Starry Nights” lighting display will begin at Badu Park.
Scatterthought

I had a wonderful dilemma last weekend. There were so many Veterans Day events that I couldn’t possibly attend them all. But even though I “only” made it to parts of six, I was absolutely delighted to see the way the Highland Lakes area celebrated this holiday. I considered those events to be the big story of last week, and I deliberately skipped other events that I might normally have attended because I wanted to save some space to honor the folks who honored our heroes. You’ll see pictures from eight Veterans Day events in this week’s paper (friends sent pictures of two more), and if my schedule had allowed it, there would be even more. Everybody else got lower priority.

That is not to say that nothing else happened, and I have some other events covered, too. I hope you’ll enjoy the paper!

I have lots of items to mention here; I’ll do as many as I can.

Valentine’s Lakeside, on Eared Moore Dr. in Kingsland, is hosting a free “Hill Country Music Jam” from 1 to 8 p.m. this Saturday. They’ll have several out-of-town musicians there, but they are inviting local musicians to bring their instruments and join in the fun.

The new Pet Supermarket, next to the new Bealls in Marble Falls, will be holding a Grand Opening this Saturday, with food, drinks and a raffle for gift baskets, a $100 gift card and other great prizes! Plus, the first 50 customers to make a purchase will receive a goodie bag with samples and a Grand Opening Coupon Book. Also, the Hill Country Humane Society will be holding a “Show-n-Shine” there with several of their adoptable pets.

There are several new businesses “Coming Soon” in Kingsland! The former Storm’s restaurant building has been purchased by La Tequita Jalisco, a Mexican restaurant from Fredericksburg. There are signs for two new businesses (Septic Pumping & Maintenance is already open; Kingsland Feed is coming soon) in front of the old Dos Rios Veterinary (more recently Purple Pig BBQ). The KT Waterfront Construction headquarters (just down the hill from the 1431 overlook) is nearing completion, and the Boat Town complex at the former site of Longhorn Resort is under construction. Not to mention the new Prosperity Bank, which has made a lot of progress since it was last on the front page of this paper.

A new ladies’ prayer gathering is planned for 8-8:45 a.m. on the first Saturday of each month (I think December 2 will be the second one) at the pavilion in Johnson Park in Marble Falls. All ladies, of all ages and from all churches, are invited to come and pray together for personal needs and for the community.

The Highland Lakes Master Gardener Association is looking for new recruits. The next 13-week class will begin on Thursday, February 15. If you have the time and the inclination, please visit www.burnetcountynh.highlandlakesmaster-gardener.org or call Amy Parke at 254-833-2720.

The Upper Highland Lakes Nature Center soon resume their “A Taste of Nature” programs at Numinous Coffee Roasters in Marble Falls. Except for Christmas time, they will be at the cafe on alternating Saturday mornings from 10 until noon starting December 9. The series of ten sessions will culminate in a Numinous Family Day at the Nature Center in May.

The Healing and Recovery Through Horses (HARTH) Foundation and the Burnet Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 46974 are offering a free peer-to-peer basic level course by the Burnet County Coordinators of the Military Veteran Peer Support (MVPS). The course will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. this Sunday (November 19) at the VFW Hall on Hwy 29 West in Burnet. Some of the topics the course will cover are post-traumatic stress disorder, stress, suicide awareness, addictive behaviors, depression, cultural competence, and ethics. Contact Sean Jones at (512) 586-6070 or visit hartzx.org for more information.

Derek Timmons welcomed Kingsland Chamber members to Buddies convenience store during the monthly Breakfast Club meeting on Wednesday. This month’s event sponsor at the networking breakfast was O2 Kool Refrigeration and Air Conditioning.

A good crowd gathered at the former Ryder’s building on Saturday for a BBQ fundraiser to support the Granite Shoals Christmas Outreach program, which provides new toys and books to needy children.

A good crowd, including hundreds of students and several local veterans, celebrated Veterans Day at Packsaddle Elementary School in Kingsland on Friday morning.

Another crowd gathered at Kingsland School on Friday for an early celebration of Veterans Day. Several other schools around the Highland Lakes also celebrated the holiday, which fell on a Saturday this year, one day early.

The Kingsland House of Arts and Crafts held its new Christmas Market last Friday and Saturday. The weather was gloomy on Friday morning when this picture was taken, but shoppers seemed undeterred.

The Highland Lakes Quilters presented Quilts of Valor to 36 area veterans during a Veterans Day celebration at the JLK Event Center in Llano.

The Highland Lakes Men’s Chorus (most of whose members are veterans) sang patriotic songs at the Kingsland School’s Veterans Day celebration last Friday.

These veterans, including members of the Highland Lakes Honor Guard, posed for a group picture at Veterans Park in Granite Shoals, where a celebration is held on the Saturday before Veterans Day each year.
Dozens of area veterans filed between the rows of flag-flying students in the “Walk of Honor” at the R.J. Richey Elementary School’s annual Veterans Day celebration. The school’s event has been one of the biggest and best in the Highland Lakes area for the past two decades.

Teams of costumed students representing each branch of the military marched down the center of the gymnasium as their branch’s song was being played. Those in the audience who had served in the U.S. Army stood to be recognized as this cheerful group marched.

Students sang “Veterans Hallelujah” and “What can you say to a Hero?” in the moving ceremony at Burnet’s R.J. Richey Elementary last Friday, the day before Veterans Day.

Highland Lakes Weekly
These 15 veterans celebrated their special day last Saturday at the White House in Washington D.C., as guests of Honor Flight Austin. Among them was Louis Metzler of Burnet (in wheelchair with cane), a World War II veteran who fought the last several months of the war with General Patton’s 3rd Army in Europe.

Clouds made the “Night Sky Party” impossible last Saturday night at Longhorn Cavern, but this group decided to go on a “night hike” (with special flashlights) instead.

Robin Chiesa, of Old Glory Millinery in Llano, posed with some of her “students” at a hat-decorating class she held on Sunday afternoon at the Llano Fine Art Gallery. On Monday evening, she held a workshop at Marta Stafford Fine Art in Marble Falls.

The new Pet Supermarket, which shares the building on Hwy 1431 in Marble Falls with the new Bealls and Koko Fit Club stores, will be holding its Grand Opening this Saturday, November 18. There will be refreshments, raffles and giveaways. Also, the Hill Country Humane Society will be holding a “Show-n-Shine” there on Saturday morning to show off some of its most adoptable pets during the celebration.
Music around the Lakes

Well-known Nashville musicians Jim Glaser and Bobby Tomberlin headlined a wonderful show at the Llano Country Opry last Saturday night.

The Algerita Hill band, made up of Paul, Lisa, Mark and Seth Bechler, who live between Burnet and Bertram, provided excellent live music at the Veterans Day celebration in Burnet before short talks by VFW Commander Bill Alexander and Burnet Mayor Crista Bromley.

John Arthur Martinez sang his new song, "This is America (I've got your six)," at the R.J. Richey Veterans Day celebration in Burnet last Friday. He wrote the song earlier this year for the Patriot Outdoor Adventures group ("Helping Heroes Heal"), which holds regular outdoor events for veterans and military families.

Happy Thanksgiving

We thank you for the opportunity to work together and for making us feel at home in our community.

(as well as any other carpentry needs)
Small Business Saturday is an American shopping holiday held on the Saturday after Thanksgiving during one of the busiest shopping periods of the year. It is the counterpart to Black Friday (big box retail) and Cyber Monday (internet shopping) and encourages holiday shoppers to patronize brick and mortar businesses that are small and local.

The Kingsland Chamber of Commerce supports this effort and hopes you will too. This event is open to all businesses in Kingsland and the surrounding areas. For those without store fronts we will set up at the First Baptist Church, rain or shine from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m.

SPONSORED BY THE KINGSLAND CHAMBER AND THESE LOCAL BUSINESSES:

O2Kool Refrigeration and AC      Jenn’s Jewelry
Jeralyn Risley with Avon          Protea
Sandra Partin (It’s Here &         Café 2300
          Sister’s Antiques and More)      Gray Insurance
Buddies                          Premier Design Jewelry
Kingsland Insurance              Reflections

Call Teresa Gray at 325-388-9382 if you’d like to participate.
