The Nutcracker!

Among the many Christmas activities around the Highland Lakes last weekend were two excellent variations of the traditional Nutcracker ballet: The Story of the Nutcracker (pictured above), presented at Burnet High School by Studio 29 Dance Centre and the BHS Highlandettes drill team, and The Nutcracker’s Gifts of Christmas, presented at Marble Falls High School by Harmony School of Creative Arts. The Wildflower Dance Studio will present its own version of the Nutcracker at Llano High School on Saturday (two shows, 2 p.m. and 6 p.m.) and Sunday (2 p.m.), December 16 & 17. For more Nutcracker pictures from last weekend, see pages 8 & 9. You can check out the “Highland Lakes Weekly” Facebook page for many more photos from the Nutcracker shows and other events in our busy neighborhood.

I have seen the Culver family (Adam, Jessica and their kids) participating or spectating at at many public events, and have quite a few pictures of them in my archives. I found them again last Friday, volunteering at Main Street Bethlehem.

Scatterthought

Last weekend was a busy one, and on Saturday night I was really glad to get some sleep. This weekend may be even busier, but it should be the last REALLY busy weekend until sometime in March. I think I’m going to survive, and I expect that (if I do survive), I’ll have a whole lot of good memories from these past few weeks.

Most of the events I expect to attend are listed in my “Upcoming Events” article, but some deserve extra mention here. And some things aren’t in that article, which I finished a few hours ago.

Guitarist Paul Finley is coming to Llano this Friday evening for a concert at 7 to 7:30 p.m. at the world-famous Bellamy Brothers. If you don’t have tickets yet, call them at 225-387-3334; there may be some left!

The Austin-based Irish traditional band “The Here & Now” will bring their festive Celtic Christmas show, Nollaig, to Marble Falls this Saturday. They will be joined by the Louisiana Cajun/ Irish quartet, Célign, and the Nollaig Irish Dancers for a family-friendly holiday variety show at 7 p.m. on Saturday at the Upstage Theatre. A portion of the ticket sales benefit the Phoenix Center, a Marble Falls nonprofit committed to meeting the need for high-quality, affordable mental health care for children and families in need.

The Sunday service at Highland Lakes United Methodist Church will feature choirs from Handel’s Messiah this week, and a special bell choir on Sunday the 17th. They will also have a mobile food bank this month. Call 325-388-4187 for more details.

The Lakeshore Library has a busy schedule this month. They’ll be holding a holiday Open House from 2 to 5 p.m. on Monday, December 11. It’s an informal, come-and-go event; refreshments will be provided by Library staff as a “thank you” to the community. A beautiful quilt, made and donated by the Tow Quilters Club, will be displayed and tickets will be available for a December 20 drawing. On Wednesday, December 13 (at 2 p.m.) guests can create a “glass-on-glass” project that will make a great gift or a lovely addition to their home. All the necessary supplies will be provided. Call 325-379-1174 for more information.

The Kingsland Chamber’s Breakfast Club will meet at the Vineyard B&B at Lost Creek Ranch, on RR 2233 near Sunrise Beach, at 7:45 a.m. on Wednesday, December 13. The Girl Scouts in Kingsland invite the public to a meeting at the Windchime Assisted Living Center at 2 p.m. that day to discuss options for a carbide recycling program.

Author Linda Adams Brooks will be the featured speaker at the Herman Brown Free Library’s Coffee Talks, at 2 p.m. on Thursday, December 14. She will share the story of her family’s journey from Texas to life in rural east Africa as medical missionaries.

That evening (4-7 p.m.), Protea Salon will host its monthly charity fundraiser; the Kingsland School will be the beneficiary this time around. There will be door prizes and raffles, and 20% of the night’s proceeds will go to the school.

The Llano Library invites the public to a special showing of the movie, “The Muppet Christmas Carol” at 2 p.m. on Thursday, December 21. Snacks and crafts will be provided, and Santa will visit after the movie. The following Friday, December 29, there will be a Kids Rockin’ Neon Year’s Eve Blast from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
CHRISTMAS in Kingsland

The highlight of the “Kingsland Christmas” event at the community center last Saturday was the arrival of Santa in a fire truck. First in a long line to have their pictures taken with him were four members of the Burg family (above): Felicia, Evan, Dean and Landon.

Various activity stations and vendors’ booths were set up throughout the Kingsland Community Center, and guests enjoyed various crafts and games. A fish fry provided delicious meals in the middle of the day.

One notable guest at Kingsland Christmas was the Grinch, who turned out to be surprisingly cheerful and friendly (posing here with Lisa Maloney and her grandson).

Charlotte Dilworth, of Kingsland Health & Fitness Center, presented a check for $1,465 from the proceeds of her “After-Turkey” Turkey Trot the day after Thanksgiving to volunteers from Sharing the Harvest. Judging by the crowd of “customers” at the food bank, it seems that the money will be put to good use in the very near future!

Volunteers from Friends of the Kingsland Library greeted a steady stream of visitors at their Open House on Tuesday afternoon.

Sasha and Raina Fry, of Kloset Deja Vu in Kingsland (2112 FM 1431, in Kingsland Plaza), will be hosting the first “Kingsland Kid’s Market” in front of their store from noon to 4 this Saturday (December 9). The event is designed to encourage and showcase younger entrepreneurs, and Sasha says she has been pleasantly surprised by the number of applicants and the quality of their handmade products. You may be able to help a future business leader and get a unique Christmas gift at the same time!

The Horseshoe Bay Business Alliance celebrated its 10th “birthday” at this year’s Holidaze event in the HSB “business district” on Hwy 2147 last Thursday evening.

The popular Wildflower Dance Troupe was part of the live entertainment at last Thursday’s Holidaze celebration in Horseshoe Bay.

A group of hardy runners and walkers gathered at the Visitors Center in Llano last Saturday morning as Santa officiated at the annual “Reindeer Run 5K.”

A sellout crowd of more than 40 aspiring artists gathered to paint a “Christmas Truck” under the supervision of Jeremy Serna from “Painting With Friends” in Brownwood. The popular program allows each participant to create a unique personal masterpiece while enjoying a cheerful social occasion. (The finished truck was red!)
A crowd surrounded the tax collector and his guard last Friday night as a line of unfortunate citizens waited to pay their taxes in ancient Bethlehem. The wonderful presentation of the Christmas story attracted thousands to Main Street Bethlehem last weekend.

Skeptical partiers at the local tavern made fun of the shepherds who told how angels had proclaimed the Messiah’s birth in Bethlehem.

Live (and friendly) camels are among the many authentic touches to the amazing Main Street Bethlehem presentation. It will be open again this weekend (weather permitting) from 6 to 9 p.m. on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Thank you for reading the Highland Lakes Weekly!
The new H.E.B. in Marble Falls is well on its way to completion, and an Opening Day is reportedly planned for sometime in February.

The long-time location of El Rio convenience store was cleared by last week, giving a temporarily unobstructed view of Kingsland’s historic railroad bridge as workers prepare the site for an upscale convenience store/office/restaurant complex on the lakeside lot.

The historic Lantex Theater, built on Llano’s courthouse square in 1927, has been impressively revitalized in recent years through the City of Llano’s Main Street program, and has become a hub of community activity. A “Bandanas and Bling” gala, featuring the music of Gary P. Nunn, was held there last Friday night to raise funds for further improvements.

This well-known former restaurant building on the northwest edge of Kingsland has recently re-opened as Kingsland Feed & Hay.

The long-time “6-Pack It” location, just east of Kingsland on Hwy 1431, is being reclaimed bit-by-bit as a retail center by new owner Oscar Kitzichler (of Sungold Properties in Kingsland), and two stores have taken up residence there in recent months.

The Friends of the Llano Library will host a Soup Lunch fundraiser at the library on Thursday, December 14. Serving will start at 11 a.m. and end at 1 p.m. (or when the soup is gone).

The Hill Country Community Theatre will present “A Don’t Hug Me Christmas Carol” again next weekend with 7:30 p.m. shows on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and a 2:15 matinee on Sunday.

The “Best Christmas Pageant Ever” will be presented at First Baptist Church in Marble Falls at 7 p.m. on Friday, December 15, and at 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. on Saturday, December 16. The musical tells how a family of misfits storms the local church decides to take over the annual Christmas pageant. Once all is said and done, neither they nor the church folk will ever be the same again. Admission is free.

Wildflower Dance Studio will present its Nutcracker show at the Llano High School auditorium on Saturday (2 p.m. and 6 p.m.) and Sunday (2 p.m.), December 16 & 17.

Weekday Ministries will hold a “Holiday Trio” event (Chili Cook-Off, Pie Contest and Old-Fashioned Caroling) from 4 to 6 p.m. on Saturday, December 16 at the Methodist Church in Burnet.

The Llano County Historical Museum will host a “come and go” Open House from 5 to 7 p.m. on Tuesday, December 19.

Calamity & Grace, on the west side of the Llano square, will hold a Winter Solstice Party from 5 to 8 on Thursday, December 21.

The Bluebonnet Harmonies (above) entertained the ladies waiting for their afternoon tea at Sandstone Street B&B’s annual Christmas Tea on Sunday (at right).

One of the unique stops on the Llano Woman’s Culture Club’s Holiday Home Tour this year was this former railroad “Line Shack,” recently transformed into a charming writer’s retreat by Todd and Dana Wright. It is located next to the tracks on Sheffield Street, just behind the Visitor Center in Llano.

The interior of the Wrights’ tiny Line Shack has been cleverly arranged to include a bathroom, kitchen and bedroom in just 260 square feet. A vaulted ceiling and unique furnishings make it a very appealing place for peaceful contemplation and work.

John and Rachel Corcoran’s historic East Main Street home was another popular stop on Saturday’s Holiday Home Tour. In addition to the recent renovation and beautiful furnishings, it boasts a large deck and back yard overlooking the Llano River.
