The community is rallying to the support of Kingsland’s new branch of the Highland Lakes Boys & Girls Club, opened last August in the excellent facilities of the First Baptist Church. Membership has grown to approximately 80 children, who are dropped off after school and served a meal, given time to do homework and provided with all kinds of healthy fun. As the end of the school year approached, it was apparent that more funds would be needed if the club were to be able to serve its clientele on an all-day basis while parents worked during the school’s summer vacation. This past week, two very generous donations were made, and the club is “very near” to filling the budget shortfall. In the photo above, individual Realtors and the Highland Lakes Association of Realtors presented a check for $10,150; just two days later, representatives of the Kingsland Community Church and its Women’s Christian Ministry group (pictured at left) brought another check for $10,050! In between those two presentations, a Young Life Banquet at Highland Lakes United Methodist Church raised thousands of dollars for that worthy ministry to help Llano High School students through difficult years (see page 4).
It's Easter weekend, and churches around the Highland Lakes will be holding services to commemorate Christ's death and resurrection. Probably the most dramatic Good Friday event will be the Easter Journey at Burnet's Main Street Bethel, held from 6 to 9 p.m. on March 30.

By JOHN HALLOWELL

Marble Falls High School's impressive theatre group will present a free showing its District Champion (and Area Qualifying play), Treasure Island, in the MFHS auditorium at 5 p.m. this Friday, March 30. The public is invited.

Horseshoe Bay Resort's annual Balloon Festival is scheduled for Easter weekend, March 30 to April 1. Burnet's Main Street Bethlehem site will be the venue for an Easter Journey, from 6 to 9 p.m. on Good Friday, March 30. Visitors can witness a dramatization of Christ's crucifixion in the "ancient" town.

The Kingland Lions Charities will host a Pancake Breakfast at the Kingland Community Center from 7:15 to 9 a.m. on Saturday, March 31. The Kingland Garden Club will hold its annual Plant Sale fundraiser there from 7 to noon.

The Llano Art Studio Tour (L.A.S.T.), headquartered at the Llano Fine Arts Gallery, will be held from 10 to 5 on Saturday, March 31 (see ad on page 12). The Kingland Volunteer Fire Department will host its annual Easter Egg Hunt behind M&M Donuts (1335 RR 1431) at 10 a.m. on Saturday, March 31 (see ad on page 8). Genesis Lutheran (on Hwy 29 in Buchanan Dam) will host another big Easter Egg Hunt at 11:30 a.m. on Saturday, March 31 (see ad on page 10). Llano Nursing and Rehabilitation will host an Easter Egg Hunt at 2 p.m., also this Saturday.

First Baptist Church of Sunrise Beach will host its annual Easter Sunrise Service at 7 a.m. on Sunday, April 1, at McNair Park. For details or directions, visit www.fbcb.org or call 325-288-4113.

The Hill Church will host a big Easter Egg Hunt on Sunday, April 1, following services at 10:30 a.m. at The
I took advantage of the “Range Day at the Pit,” off CR 321 near Malcolm Long Fishing Camp in Llano County, to make my first-ever hike to this 1930 railroad bridge. I now have pictures of eight bridges (or trestles) between Kingsland and Llano, but I’m betting that there are some that I still haven’t noticed.

Scatterthought

It was a busy week last week, with computer problems and book sales adding to a pretty full schedule of events. The lack of sleep was catching up with me long before the weekend, and I was more “dazed and confused” than ever by Sunday.

I want to interject here that book sales have been MUCH steadier than I anticipated, and I’m actually going to order 300 more copies as soon as I get the types fixed from the latest printing. I am very pleased to see so many people interested in Kingsland history, and I think I might not have to end up with boxes and boxes of leftover books for my kids to inherit.

Back to my story, Monday had a couple of very encouraging events. As you noticed on the front page, the Highland Lakes Association of Realtors put together an amazing donation for the new Boys and Girls Club in Kingsland and the Llano County Young Life Banquet seemed very successful as well (although I haven’t heard any numbers yet). Then on Wednesday, two ladies from the Kingsland Community Church (led by Pastor Christi Martin) brought another huge donation for the Boys and Girls Club. I don’t think the club has completely met its budget requirements yet, but I think I can safely say that there will be a safe, happy, and beneficial place for eighty children (so far) in Kingsland this summer, and to me that is wonderful news.

Now I need to mention a couple of unkept promises that I made before I was delayed (relatively speaking) with advertising this week. I really intended to provide free ads for several good community events, but paying customers get precedence, and I’m going to have to do a little publicizing right here to try to get myself off the hook.

I have to admit that during my hectic weekend I got a little confused; in my mind, I mixed up a couple of the four Fish Fry fundraisers, and thought two separate gun raffles were one and the same. I think I’ve got the fish fries straight now, the 100 Club fish fry is this Saturday, but it’s in Johnson City. The Burnet Masons (11-2) and the Llano VFD (4-tul-gone) are holding their fish fries on April 14. And the Buchanan Dam VFD apparently won’t hold theirs until April 28. I got these last two mixed up (and can’t remember what I promised either of them), but I especially want to mention Llano’s since it’s this week. You have a choice there; they serve fish AND BBQ; they also have raffles, door prizes and live music. It’s really a big deal, and I always enjoy going there.

Most of the other events that I want to help publicize are in Llano, too. There are, of course, big events coming up in Horseshoe Bay (the Balloon Festival, this weekend) and Burnet (the Bluebonnet Festival, the second weekend in April), but Llano has an almost unbelievable schedule for the next few weeks. This weekend will “joust” be their excellent Llano Art Studio Tour (see ad on page 12) and a few other “little” events. Next weekend is the absolutely wonderful Fiddle Fest Weekend, with all sorts of fun and great music from accomplished fiddlers from all over the state (probably other states, too). I don’t know everyone who has helped make that such a big success these past few years, but I know that my friends John Cabrera and Keenan Fletcher are very much involved (thanks to all of you)!

I put a few details in my “Upcoming Events” article this week, and I will have more in next week’s paper, but I’m sure that the Llano Chamber would be delighted to help if you have questions.

Then there’s the Crawfish Open, on April 20 and 21. I’ll mention here that Les Hartman and Tracy Byrd will be providing the entertainment on Friday night; Eleven Hundred Springs and Flahland Cavalry will be there on Saturday night. More on that amazing event later.

Young Life Area Director Glenn Austell, from Lubbock, enlisted five good-natured volunteers from the audience for a comic interlude at Monday night’s fundraising banquet before an inspiring program which included personal stories from three Llano High School Young Life members. The well-attended event was held at Highland Lakes United Methodist Church, in Buchanan Dam.

The Lambda Nu sorority’s “Tea Under the Sea” party, held at the Kingsland Community Center last Thursday afternoon, was a big success, with a good crowd having a good time while helping various area charities. The popular annual event features a different theme each year, but always draws a good (and well-dressed) crowd.

The Highland Lakes Men’s Chorus provided live entertainment for Lambda Nu’s “Tea under the Sea” party. They gathered outside the Kingsland Community Center for this photo before their performance.

Patches of bluebonnets beautify the grounds of Kingsland’s Community Church in this photo (taken last week). More than just a pretty face, the church has played a huge role in the community since its founding in 1954. This week, KCC and its Women’s Christian Ministry donated more than $10,000 to help the Kingsland Boys and Girls Club to expand its hours through the summer season.

The successful Kingsland Beautification Golf Tournament, held last Saturday at the Legends Golf Course, raised funds for improvements at the Kingsland Community Park.

One of two shooting events there last weekend, the Range Day at the Pit raised funds for Tuck-n-Tumble’s Nationals team, while educating youngsters on the proper use of guns. The previous day, more than 70 area teachers participated in a “concealed-carry” class there. The shooting range is located in a gravel pit just off CR 312, near Kingsland.

Samm and Martelle Luedecke introduced youngsters to some area “Predators” in an Upper Highland Lakes Nature Center “Taste of Nature” program at Numinous Coffee Roasters in Marble Falls on March 17. The next such event will be a “Native Peoples” program, scheduled for 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday, April 7. The UHLNC presents two programs at Numinous every month.

A crowd of good-hearted golfers participated in the Epsilon Pi Golf Tournament, held at Delaware Springs Golf Course in Burnet, last Saturday afternoon. Proceeds will benefit area charities.

Shooting teams from several counties joined Guy Taylor’s Burnet County 4-H shooting team for a competition last Saturday morning at the Copperhead Creek Shooting Club, east of Marble Falls.
Virginia Walker, of Sandstone Street B&B, welcomed a capacity crowd to the “In Your Easter Bonnet” vintage fashion show, held at the Llano County Historical Museum on Sunday afternoon.

J’Nean Henderson of League City, an expert in all things Victorian, was the featured speaker at the “In Your Easter Bonnet” vintage fashion show. She described the garments worn by women during the Victorian Age and explained the purpose of each item.

Several impeccably-dressed locals served as models at Sunday’s impressive event. Proceeds from the party benefit the Llano County Historical Museum, and a Victorian hat exhibit will remain at the museum until the end of April.

A steady stream of interested visitors attended the very successful Archeology Fair last Saturday afternoon at the LCRA’s Nightengale Archeological Center just east of Kingsland. Thousands of artifacts have been discovered at the site, a popular camping place near the Colorado River for many generations of Native Americans. Above: a guided tour group listens to a presentation at a re-created dwelling.

Master Naturalist Billy Hutson displayed Native American artifacts on the back porch of the Nightengale Archeological Center’s headquarters, using them to explain aspects of life as a Native American in the pre-historic “Texas Hill Country.”

In one of the most interesting activities of last Saturday’s Archeology Fair, youngsters were able to try their hand at “hunting” with some of the weapons used by pre-historic Native Americans.
A good crowd of strawberry-pickers assembled last Saturday at Sweet Berry Farm in Marble Falls, taking advantage of the beautiful weather to pick their own fresh berries and enjoy the sights and activities of the popular tourist destination.

A large crowd attended last Saturday’s “Designer Purse Bingo” event at Horseshoe Bay Resort. The annual event raises funds for the Hill Country Children’s Advocacy Center.

EXCITING CHANGES COMING TO AQUABOOM!

For 48 years we have watched as Aquaboom has evolved and grown from a simple BBQ, parade and fireworks to a multi-day, multi-event festival that has become vital to the very fabric of our community and Llano County. Once again, Aquaboom is moving forward and spreading its wings with the formation of the new Aquaboom Parks Development and Community Outreach Corporation. This is a non-profit volunteer organization that will take on the responsibility of producing the annual Aquaboom 4th of July celebration, and with nine hopes to include other community events.

As Kingsland has grown through the years, it has become increasingly apparent that the needs and responsibilities of both the Chamber and Aquaboom have grown as well. With this separation, the Chamber of Commerce and Aquaboom can now both expand as organizations, adding to the vitality and growth of Kingsland.

As a separate organization, Aquaboom now hopes to be able to become a further-reaching entity within the community, and with our application of 501(c)3 non-profit charitable status, we hope that in time we will be able to provide more community outreach and philanthropic contributions. In turn, the Chamber of Commerce will also be able to better concentrate on its responsibilities to the businesses of Kingsland and the economic growth of the community.

Aquaboom is grateful for the Chamber's leadership in the past and is looking forward to having it continue to be a part of its bright future. Both organizations are committed to working closely together going forward to ensure continued success and growth, not only for each other but the community of Kingsland as well.

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

As always, our volunteers are the heart and core of a successful Aquaboom. We are working diligently to make year 49 just as great! If you would like to be a part of a hard-working, fun-loving and community-minded group, please join us for our first Aquaboom Committee meeting of the season on

The Burnet Community Center, near the railroad on Jackson Street, was filled with eager gardeners for the Hill Country Lawn and Garden Show last Saturday. In addition to the dozens of vendors, there were several gardening-related displays and presentations throughout the day.

Another cheerful crowd of gardening enthusiasts gathered at the Family Life Center of Lutie Watkins Memorial United Methodist Church in Llano for the Llano County Master Gardeners’ Lawn & Garden Show, also held last Saturday.

Meet Naomi, a Shepherd mix who weighs about 52 pounds and is about 1 1/2 years old. Naomi is a very sweet girl who enjoys running and playing. She knows “sit” and “down” and gets along with other dogs. She would be so happy to have her very own loving home; can you help her? To meet Naomi, please call HCHS at 512-793-5450. To see all of Naomi’s friends, please visit our website at www.HillCountryHumaneSociety.org. We are open Thursday through Monday, from 11am to 4pm.
