An enthusiastic group of fiddlers from Lamar Middle School in Austin added their energy and skill to this year’s “Air Fiddle” competition in Llano with a spirited version of “The Devil Went Down to Georgia” on Friday evening. The always-entertaining event, held this year at Tommy’s Pizza, was part of the lead-up to the big “Open Fiddle Contest” at the Lantex Theater during Llano’s Fiddle Fest Weekend. You can see more “fiddling” pictures on pages 7, 8, 9 and 13 in this week’s paper, or see dozens more on the “Highland Lakes Weekly” Facebook page.
Upcoming Events

Burnet's wonderful Bluebonnet Festival will be held this weekend. The Grand Parade (last year’s parade pictured above) will be held downtown Burnet at 11 a.m. on Saturday.

By JOHN HALLOWELL

Burnet’s 35th Annual Bluebonnet Festival will already be underway by the time you read this, but the official “Opening Ceremonies” will be held on the square at 5:30 p.m. on Friday (April 12), followed by the Pet Parade and a concert with Bobby Flores. The Grand Parade will begin at 11 a.m. on Saturday, but the fun will continue in various locations around town all weekend.

The Antlers Inn in Kingsland will host a movie night to show “Somewhere in Time” in the courtyard after dark on Friday, April 13.

Lake Area Rods and Classics will hold its 15th Annual Car Show all day on Saturday, April 14, at Hamilton Creek Park in Burnet.

The Hill Country Motorheads motorcycle museum (in the old Johnson Ford building on Hwy 29W in Burnet) will hold its Grand Opening on Saturday, April 14.

Valley Masonic Lodge (311 S. Main, in Burnet) will host its annual Fish Fry Lunch from 11 to 2 on Saturday, April 14.

The YMCA in Burnet will host a “Kids Night Out” from 2 to 7 p.m. on Saturday, April 14. Children from 6 weeks to 13 years old will develop social skills, creativity and self-confidence as they enjoy activities like gym games, a movie, arts and crafts, playtime, stories and a meal. Space is limited. Register at the Y or online.

The Llano VFD will hold its annual fundraiser Fish Fry and BBQ on Saturday, April 14 (from 4 p.m. until the food runs out).

Doug Stone & Jade Jack will headline the Llano Country Opry on Saturday, April 14. The show will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The Highland Arts Gallery’s Annual Spring Show will continue this weekend (Saturday, April 14 & 15). An original painting of Fall Creek Falls (by Elizabeth Moore) will be raffled for $5 per ticket or $6 for $5, with the drawing at 5 p.m. on Sunday. Raffle proceeds support the gallery’s summer children’s art camp and community service projects. The gallery is located at 318 Main Street, in Marble Falls.

Buchanan Arts & Crafts will host a Game Day from 10 to 4 on Tuesday, April 17.

Brenda Perry will present the program “Waste Not, Want Not” at the Highland Lakes Quilt Guild meeting (at 9:30 a.m.) on Wednesday, April 18, at the First United Methodist Church in Marble Falls. Guests are welcome. The following day will feature a workshop on “Those Amazing Stripes.” Call 830-637-7197 for more details.

The “Style in Action” Luncheon and Spring Style Show, to benefit Meals on Wheels (see ad on page 12), will be held from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Tuesday, April 18, at Lakeside Pavilion in Marble Falls. Tickets are available at Salem’s Fashions in Marble Falls and Salem’s Jewelry in Burnet.

Author Ken Roberts will give a talk on the Cedar Choppers of Burnet County at a meeting of the Burnet County Genealogical Society, scheduled for 1:15 p.m. on Wednesday, April 19, in the Herman Brown Free Library in Burnet.

The Boys and Girls Club of the Highland Lakes will host a Chamber Mixer from 5 to 7 p.m. on Wednesday, April 19, in the pavilion at Burnet's Delware Springs Golf Course.

Llano’s huge Crawfish Open is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, April 20 & 21. In addition to the tons of crawfish and many gallons of beer, the event will feature a roping competition, a golf tournament, a motorcycle fun run, kids’ activities, auctions and live music (starring Les Hartman and Tracy Byrd) on Friday night, and Eleven Hundred Springs and Flatland Cavalry on Saturday night).

I don’t know exactly where to start this week, but I definitely don’t want to forget about my book-signing. As I probably mentioned several times already, the demand for “Lake LBJ and the Re-Birth of Kingsland” has been a very pleasant surprise. There are still a few of the original 500 copies in several area shops, but I ran out of the 500-plus that I had kept for myself, and actually had to reorder a few copies. So, I got a few copies, and they arrived this Tuesday afternoon. Now I have the rest of the 500 new copies that will be here before Saturday, but “better safe than sorry”.

The book-signing will be at The Napping Mouse on Saturday, March 10, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on the bluebonnet festival parade. I hope to get pictures of the parade and the Cavendish demonstration, then get back to the shop (a lovely shop) on a restored historic building. I hope my Burnet friends and anyone interested in area history will come and get an autographed book and another book-signing scheduled for April 27 in Llano. That will be at Calamity & Grace, on the west side of the square, during that town’s Fourth Friday Art Walk.

You’ll be seeing pictures all through this paper from the Llano Fiddle Fest. Wednesday and I want to say right here that it was a remarkable event, and that everyone who helped in any way should take great satisfaction in its success. I hope you’ll join me in the Highland Lakes Weekly Facebook page and look at my pictures; there’s no audio there, but I think they will give you an idea what it was like.

There are some events coming up that I want to mention here; three of them are scheduled for next Tuesday, April 17. The Llano Library will host a Pre-K Fair from 5 to 6:30 p.m. to let families see options available for their children. The Fair will feature representatives from six area Preschool programs; for more information, please call Ann Roseberg at 325-247-5248. Commissioner Mike Sandoval will hold his 10th Town Hall meeting on April 8 from 5 to 7 at the Kingsland Library. And the Lake Buchanan Conservation Corp. will host a “State of the Lake” message at 6 p.m., from Marcus Delius of Texas Parks & Wildlife.

Another interesting event is an appearance by “Captain Rex” at the Abundant Heart Church in Granite Shoals on next Wednesday, April 18 (see ad on page 9). Captain Rex is really Brandon Rex Sanders, a TV star who got his start teaching theatre arts in Copperas Cove! He now keeps busy with an international gospel-oriented traveling stage show called “Captain Rex’s Treasure Adventure.” I hope to meet him and learn a little more about what he does next Wednesday evening, but it sounds like a good work that he’s doing.

The Packesdale Elementary PTO is holding a Talent Show at 6 p.m. next Friday, April 29, in the school cafeteria. The first Kids’ Day celebration in Marble Falls will be held next Saturday, April 29, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Johnson Park. The Burnet County Historical Commission will host a Fish Fry fundraiser at Fort Coghlan from 4:30 to 7 that evening. The NEXT Friday (April 27), Packesdale Elementary will host a free “Dinosaurs Live” event, from 5:30 to 7 p.m. and the day after that, the Boys and Girls Club in Marble Falls will host an all-day Dodgeball Tournament (with two local boys in mind: Bryan, who is fighting Leukemia, and Brodie, who is fighting Rhodomyeloma) to raise funds to help fight childhood cancer. Nina Price, Joy Frear and Renee Morgan enjoyed a “Loom a Scrubblie Dub Dub” workshop at Kingsland House of Arts & Crafts. Nina Price is this month’s KHAC “ Crafter of the Month,” and her fabric hot pads, rugs, jackets, aprons and bags are available for sale. She also has a variety of quilted products.

This unique lineup of railroad motorcans next to Kingsland’s Campa Pajama Lane occurred when members of Railroad Partners stopped for lunch at Kingsland’s new La Tequila Jalisco restaurant during one of their periodic rides on the railroad in Llano and Burnet County.

The Lighthouse Country Club is beautifully green again this spring, and dozens of golfers were there last Friday.

Board members of the new Aqua Boom Parks Development and Community Outreach Corporation gathered at Highland Lakes Watercraft in Kingsland last Friday to show off the new Sea Doo which will be raffled off at this year’s Aqua Boom festival. From left: Eric Carorgepe (of HL Watercraft), Dan Raley, Teresa Gray, Hafdis Gentry, Ramon Arriaga, Wendy Taylor and Paul Gosselin Jr.

It’s almost three months before Kingsland’s big Aqua Boom festival, but President Wendy Taylor, of the new Aqua Boom corporation, held this year’s first meeting with event chairs and volunteers on Monday at Gatti’s Pizza.

The Kingsland Genealogical Society (KGS) held a well-attended research workshop on Monday evening at Packsaddle Elementary School’s computer lab.
While the fire at Doug Brooks’ upholstery shop, located on RR 2545 in Kingsland, was a major blow, he is working now at his home a few miles away. Signs at the burned-out shop announce “We’re Still Open!”

Kingsland’s First Baptist Church has a new pastor! David Henneke was born into a Christian family in San Angelo and made his personal decision for Christ when he was 16; he felt a call to full-time ministry while he was in college and served as a Youth Leader at Kitzingen Baptist Church in Germany during a 4-year tour in the U.S. Army. He married KC Merchant in 1992; they have two grown sons and a daughter. In 2014, they adopted a new-born baby boy while David was serving as Senior Pastor at the First Baptist Church in Independence, Kansas; he had previously served at churches in Corpus Christi, Stephenville and Fort Worth, and has close personal connections with orphanages in Malawi and Haiti. Pastor Henneke is eager to return to Texas, and excited about the opportunities to serve God in Kingsland. The public is invited to help welcome him to Kingsland on Sunday, May 6.

Barbara Hefner, of Llano, brought a slide show and part of her impressive collection to the Lakeshore Library (in Buchanan Dam) for a presentation on “Antique Buttons” on Tuesday.
A good crowd gathered for Friday evening’s “Air Fiddle” and “Anything Goes – Tricks & Licks” contests at Tommy’s Mesquite-Flamed Pizza. Probably the most colorful contestant in the Air Fiddle contest was Jackie Gaskill, who came from Hunt to compete at Friday’s event. The Fiddle Fest began with a Kick-Off Concert featuring legendary fiddler Dale Morris at Gary Lee Cox’s Texas Music Depot.

After strong challenges by the Lamar Orchestra fiddlers, Patty Felts and others, Robin Chiesa emerged triumphant once again in this year’s highly-entertaining Air Fiddle contest.
Part of the near-capacity crowd ventured outside the Lantex Theater during an intermission at the Open Fiddle Contest last Saturday in Llano. The competition attracted excellent musicians and a great fan base to the little town for a weekend full of music and fun.

Experienced musicians provided backup music and moral support for young competitors in the Youth Division, which led off the proceedings at the Lantex Theater on Saturday morning.

Most of the Youth competitors gathered on stage to hear the judges' decisions. Emily Miller (5th from right) won top honors.

Noted fiddler Starr McMullen, from Oregon, took top honors in this year's "Legends" division.

Eventual "Open" champion Dennis Ludiker was accompanied on stage by his young son, Mason.
The Sawyer family led the music at a Sunday morning service, held inside the Llano County Historical Museum this year because of the cold weather last weekend.

Fiddlers who were present at the service joined for the traditional playing of Amazing Grace.

The well-known "Spencer and Rains" duo (husband and wife Howard Rains - from Texas - and Tricia Spencer - from Kansas) closed out a wonderful weekend of music with a selection of old-fashioned fiddle tunes after the service at the Llano County Historical Museum.

are welcome.
And an acquaintance of mine, former Texas State artist George Buxwell, will have a booth on the west side of the square during Burnet’s Bluebonnet Festival this weekend. For a preview of his nostalgic Texas paintings, visit www.georgebuxwell.com.
And the Hill Country Community Theatre will produce the musical, “Annie Jr.” in its 2018 Youth Summer Theatre Program. Students will learn the fundamentals of acting while rehearsing and presenting a full muscical. For details (or an application), call the theatre at

Music around the Lakes

Above: Musical cousins Marshall and Warren Hood were joined on stage by Erik Hokkanen and Will Webster during their Saturday evening concert at the Lantex Theater.

At left: Jake Hooker and the Outsiders provided dance music at the Ramblin' Rose in Llano last Saturday night.

The Heart of Texas Orchestra presented a "Spring Concert in the Loft" at Marble Falls First Baptist Church last Sunday afternoon.

The Castell Grind

More than 200 hardy bicyclists gathered on a cold morning last Saturday to participate in the “Castell Grind.” Riders had the choice of a 50K, 75K or 100K course on the rural roads around Castell.

The crowd of riders streamed past Castell General Store toward Loyal Valley on the first leg of their ambitious itinerary. The temperature was around 40 degrees at the 9 a.m. starting time.

Pet of the Week

Ursa is a sweet girl. She is nine months old and weighs 40 pounds. She has a lot of energy and enjoys running and playing. She loves attention and gets along with other dogs and cats, too.

Ursa has been here since she was born, patiently waiting for her very own home. All she has known is the shelter life. Are you going to be the one that shows her a loving home? (She really deserves it!) To meet Ursa, or any of her friends, please call the Hill Country Humane Society at 512-793-5463 or visit www.HillCountryHumaneSociety.org. We are open Thursday through Monday, from 11am to 4pm.
