Bluebonnet Festival!

Burnet’s Bluebonnet Festival started and ended with beautiful spring weather, and even with rain and wind on Saturday, the wonderful event was a huge success. The Pet Parade, pictured above, followed Opening Ceremonies on the square on Friday evening; the Grand Parade was held at noon on Saturday. You can see more Bluebonnet Festival pictures throughout this week’s paper, and many more on the “Highland Lakes Weekly” page on Facebook.)

The Easter Journey, to be held from 6 to 9 p.m. this Friday, will feature characters and scenes from the Crucifixion story at the Main Street Bethlehem site in downtown Burnet.

By JOHN HALLOWELL

The Easter Journey, a self-paced walk-through to witness a “re-creation of events and key characters” surrounding and leading up to Jesus’ Crucifixion, will be held at the Main Street Bethlehem site in Burnet from 6 to 9 p.m. on Friday, April 19 (Good Friday).

Sonny Throckmorton and the Troubadillos will perform at 7 p.m. this Friday (April 19) at The Hideaway at the Uptown, on Main Street in Marble Falls.

The 7th Annual Balloons Over Horseshoe Bay event will be held on Easter Weekend, April 19-21.

Several churches and community organizations will be hosting Easter Egg Hunts on Saturday. Some of them have ads elsewhere in this paper.

The Ramblin’ Rose at Hwy 29W in Llano, will host a “50s Rock & Roll Revival beginning at 7 p.m. this Saturday, April 20.

First Baptist Church of Sunrise Beach is hosting its annual Easter Sunrise Service at 6:30 a.m. on Sunday, April 21, at McNair Park in Sunrise Beach. For directions and more information visit www.fbsons.org or call 325-289-6113. Dozens of other churches will hold special events for Easter this weekend; see ads on other pages of this paper for some of the many activities and services.

Brenda Falls and her therapy bird, Zazu, will be the featured guests at a meeting of the Friends of the Kingsland Library, scheduled for 2 p.m. on Tuesday, April 23, in the library’s meeting room. Refreshments will be served and a door prize will be presented.

The Hill Country Community Theatre will present Ken Ludwig’s comedy “Doublewide, Texas” for three weekends (April 25 to May 12), with Thursdays, Friday and Saturday shows at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday matinees at 2:15. The production will be directed by Laura Gisi and Kay Baker.

The Burnet High School Highlandettes will present their 40th Anniversary Spring Show (“Under the Big Top”) at the high school at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 25-27.

Llano’s Crawfish Open and Marble Falls’ Soapbox Classic are both scheduled this year for the last weekend in April. Tracy Lawrence will perform at the Crawfish Open on Friday night (April 26), and a Josh Ward concert will be the Grand Finale on Saturday night (April 27). The Soapbox Classic will begin Friday evening and continue through Sunday afternoon. A street dance, with music by Jennifer B and the Grease, will be held at 9:30 p.m. on Saturday.

The Experimental Aircraft Association will hold a Young Eagles event at the Commemorative Air Force hangar in Burnet, giving free rides to young people from 8 to 17 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday, April 27. If you are interested, please pre-register online or register at the airport on the day of the event.

Firepower Gun Shows (see ad on page 16) will host a gun show at the Kingsland Community Center on Saturday (9-5), April 27, and Sunday (10-4), April 28.

The City of Gruene shows is planning a free “Gruntfest” with a BBQ Cook-Off, live music, family activities and a variety of vendor booths on Saturday, April 27.

Kingsland School will hold its annual Lake Fest from 10 to 2 on Saturday, April 27. There will be games, concessions, face painting, a photo booth, and more. The Girl Scouts, the fish hatchery and other community groups will have booths. There will be gift baskets for raffle, and the Burnet Gunfighters will put on a show at 10:30.

The Highland Lakes Service League will hold its annual Charity Golf Tournament on Saturday, April 27. Call Deb Bennett at (503) 808-4923 for registration forms or other details.

The annual Style in Action Luncheon and Spring Style Show, to benefit Meals on Wheels, will be held from 11 to 2 on Wednesday, May 1, at the Lakeside (Continued on page 15)
I had the honor of addressing Colt Elementary School’s 4th-grade poetry club, the Colt Hamlets, at lunchtime on Monday. I must say, I enjoyed my visit as much as I did, you may see work by some of these young writers in this paper sometime soon.

Scatterthought

I think I was just too tired last week. I often felt really tired on Wednesday and Thursday, but usually I’d get some sleep over the weekend and catch up by Sunday or Monday. Last week I kept pushing the papers and then I realized they were way late on Thursday, so I had to get up early and hustle all day to get my deliveries done on Friday. There were events all weekend long, but I thought I’d get some rest on Monday or Tuesday. As it turned out, there was just too much “good news” going on (I got all excited about the progress on the bridge, and then I had to get up early to meet Ethan West on Wednesday morning). Anyway, I was really happy about everything that had happened (except my mistakes), but I ran out of energy and optimism sometime around midnight last Wednesday.

It was a temporary thing, and I’m feeling much more upbeat as I start my column this week. All the good news, and all the extra space to cover the good news in my paper, is making my job extra-rewarding these days. I’d have to say that, so far, 2019 has been a whole lot more fun than I could have planned, and if I don’t just wear myself out completely in the next couple of months it will be one of the best chapters in my upcoming autobiography.

I decided to pace myself a little more this week, but I still got a whole lot more pictures than I needed to fill this week’s paper. I also slept a little earlier this weekend because I changed up my schedule a little bit. And I did some out-of-the-ordinary things that seemed to re-energize me.

It’s impossible to plan some things, and it just so happened that I had two very interesting invitations (one from a couple of months ago, the other just a couple of weeks) to speak to two very different groups, and both of them were for this week. On Monday, I went to Colt Elementary School in Marble Falls to tell the poetry club (the fourth-grade “Colt Hamlets”) about writing as a career. On Wednesday evening, I went to the Marble Falls Library to talk to the Highland Lakes Writers’ Club about researching history. The audiences could not have been more different, but both treated me very kindly, and I came away from both events feeling rejuvenated and eager to get back to work.

I may not be quite so excited about my job as I am now, but in the morning of May 22nd, I’ll get to see the new bridge. The naming of the bridge for King’s Landing heroes David and Pat Enloe is official. TxDOT has already ordered signs that say “The Enloe Memorial Bridge!” And the report is that a ribbon-cutting ceremony has been scheduled for the afternoon of Friday, May 24th.

I said from the very beginning that I wouldn’t be upset if the April target date wasn’t met. I’d be thrilled if the new bridge was open before Memorial Day. Now it looks like that really will happen (and I am thrilled). There’s a “bridge-opening” celebration planned at Boat Town Burger Bar on May 30th, and I think it will be a very happy event.

Speaking of happy events, there will be a fundraiser for the 100 Club at McDonald’s (the flyer says “south central Texas area,” but I’m pretty sure that both the Marble Falls and Burnet restaurants are included this Friday). April 19. A percentage of sales will go to help the families of First Responders who are killed or injured.

It's OFFICIAL! The sign pictured above is already on order by TxDOT, and the new RM 2900 bridge WILL be named in honor of Kingsland heroes David and Pat Enloe, who created and nurtured the famous “Enloe’s Outlaws” ski team which became the public face of Kingsland in the 1980s.

Rapid progress continues on the new RM 2900 bridge in Kingsland, and TxDOT has reportedly scheduled a ribbon-cutting to open the bridge for Friday, May 24. Kingsland Aqua Boom and Boat Town Burger Bar are planning a huge community “Bridge-Opening” celebration on May 30.

KT Waterfront Construction hosted a well-attended mixer for the Hill Country Builders Association in its beautiful new building (just down the hill from the scenic overlook on RR 1431 in Kingsland) on Tuesday evening.

Timmons Insurance Group, which recently brought the former Kingsland Insurance Agency into the company and renovated the landmark Central Texas Title Company building for its Kingsland office, hosted the Kingsland Chamber’s “Breakfast Club” networking meeting on Wednesday morning. Dan Garcia Photography was the event sponsor.

Alva and Derek Timmons took the occasion of the early morning meeting on Wednesday to hold a ribbon-cutting at their “new” office building. The office is staffed by Blake Steck, Deborah Overstreet and John Overstreet, all from the former Kingsland Insurance Agency.

Vicky Mumau and County Attorney Rebecca Lange cut the ceremonial ribbon for the Brown & Lacleade law firm, which has its offices upstairs in the Timmons Insurance Group building. The building is located on RR 2900 at Cottonwood Drive.

Pet of the Week
Timone is a very friendly boy. He loves dogs, cats, and people. He likes to play, and is very receptive and attentive. He is a 54-pound Shepherd/Hound mix. He rarely barks, his kennel is always clean; he knows “sit,” and he walks very well on leash. Timone is very loving and needs a home that will give him as much love as he is willing to give.

Music around the Lakes

At left: Brenda Lynn Allen, from Tennessee, was another of the talented performers at last Saturday’s Country Opry.

Gozney Thornton and Joe Forlini were the featured artists at Jeriluce Arsenault’s “Texas Songwriters in the Round” event, held Tuesday evening at the Texas Music Depot in Llano.

The Shotgun Rider band, originally from the Texas Panhandle and currently from Fort Worth, prepared for their Saturday evening performance on the Burnet square during last weekend’s Bluebonnet Festival. They were followed by a Mike Ryan performance. Many other musical acts enlivened the festival atmosphere last weekend, including Texas Crossing, Ben Watson & the Hired Guns, Matthew Butter, Brooks Crossing, Britney Nemec, Troy Gilliland, Allen Ray & Southern Comfort, the Praise Team from Church at the Epicenter and Michael Ryan.
The YMCA in Burnet is looking for sponsors to help with its annual Casino Night fundraiser (last year’s event pictured above). The event, presented by D.I.J. Construction, raises funds for the YMCA Teen Center Building Fund. It is an evening of “food, fun and prizes” for a very good cause. See ymcaofburnet.org for more details.

Jackie Headrick (of empty Pockets Fishing Guide Service) and Brandon Arrington discussed a variety of issues affecting fishing conditions on the Highland Lakes during Tuesday evening’s meeting of the Lake Buchanan Conservation Corp., held at Hill Country Hall in Buchanan Dam. The LBCC is currently selling raffle tickets for three guns: a Beretta A300 12-gauge shotgun, a Henry Golden Boy 22LR Youth Model and a Ruger American 6.50 w/Redfield 3x9 scope. Separate drawings will be held at the LBCC Fish Fry on August 31.

Hill Country Community Theatre presents

DOUBLEWIDE, TEXAS

April 25 - May 12

Written by Jessie Jones, Nicholas Hope, and Jamie Woolen
Directed by WENDY FERRELL
4003 FM 2147 Cottonwood Shores

Celebrating the tenth “Toast to Tony” anniversary, Beto and the Fairlanes return to the Spicewood Vineyards stage at 7 p.m. on Friday, May 3, to honor jazz legend Tony Campise with special guests Javier Chaparro, Mitch Watkins and Tomas Ramirez.

The Bluebonnet Chorale sang some great old country songs at Gateway Villa in Marble Falls last Friday. They will be singing at Lakeshore Library in Buchanan Dam at 2:30 p.m. on Monday, April 29.
At right: Nearly two months after the first lush patches of bluebonnets appeared in Kingsland, the Highland Lakes landscape is more spectacular than ever, with red, white, yellow and purple flowers joining the early blue waves. This photo was taken at the side of Highway 71 near Sunrise Beach last Saturday.

SCATTERED THOUGHT:
on the job, so any purchase you make will support a very worthy cause.

Also, I am told that the Kingsland Garden Club will be holding its annual Plant Sale this Saturday morning at the Kingsland Community Center in conjunction with the Lions Club’s big Pancake Breakfast.

And the First Baptist Church of Sunrise Beach is hosting its annual Easter Sunrise Service at 6:30 a.m. this Sunday at McNair Park in Sunrise Beach. That always sounds like the most appropriate place (Sunrise Beach, that is) to have a Sunrise Service, so I plan to stop in sometime around sunrise the Sunday. For directions and more information visit www.tbsrb.org or call 325-288-4113.

Then there are a few Monday events I’d like to mention: Lakeshore Library will be hosting an Earth Day Plant Swap from 10 a.m. to noon (bring plants, get plants; no weeds or unidentified plants allowed. Call 325-379-1174 for more information. The Burnet VFW Post has bingo every Monday and Thursday. Players are invited, and volunteers are needed. Call 512-588-6070 for details.

The 2019 Annual Llano County Junior Livestock Show Member Meeting will be held at 6 p.m. on Monday, April 22, at the JLK Event Center.

Buchanan Arts & Crafts will begin a night class in Basic Watercolor next Monday, April 22, from 6 to 9 p.m. Call Betty Bieler at 512-755-2582 for more details.

The Highland Lakes Texas Exes have adopted a two-mile section of RR 2147. They will meet again at 9 a.m. on Saturday, April 27 at Subway in Cottonwood Shores to pick up trash along the road.

Hill Country Community Theatre invites friends to attend an informal gathering at 7 p.m. this Saturday, April 20, to say “so long” to well-known area radio and theater personality Kay Baker and to wish her good luck on her new adventures in Colorado.

Commissioner Mike Sandoval (Llano County, Precinct 1) will hold his monthly Town Hall meeting on Tuesday, April 30, at the Kingsland Library. Doors open at 5:30, and the meeting begins at 6. He promises that it will go no later than 7:30 (but he has a lot to talk about!)

The Kingsland Chamber will hold a mixer from 5 to 7 on Thursday, May 2, at Lost Creek Ranch Bistro.

The Lake Grape Club will host a 4-person, 9-Hole Scramble (with a shotgun tee-off start at 9 a.m.) on Saturday, May 4, for $10 per person (additional $10 buys a ticket for a BBQ dinner at 5:30 p.m.) A 2-person 18-Hole Scramble at $50.00 per player (includes BBQ dinner ticket) follows at 12:30 p.m. Awards, raffle, and silent auction all benefit the 57-year-old Lake Grape Club. Call (830) 598-5724 or visit www.lakegrapeclub.com for registration information.

Thank you for reading the Highland Lakes Weekly!

The Resurrection of Jesus has given meaning and hope to millions. He fulfilled centuries of prophetic prophecies, demonstrated His divine nature throughout His life, gave His life for mankind, then offered the ultimate proof of Who He is — conquering death and leaving an empty tomb behind!

When we celebrate the Resurrection, we acknowledge that there is more to life than day-to-day living. Each one of us has an appointment with Him. It could be much sooner than you realize!

Join us on Sunday, April 21st as we celebrate Him, listen to His words, ponder the mystery and prepare for a future that goes beyond life itself.
