Roy and Petey Inks made their scenic ranch in southern Llano County available to the Llano Lions Club for a “Sporting Clays” fundraiser last Saturday, and dozens of eager participants gathered for the occasion. See more photos from this remarkable event on pages 10 & 11 (and many more on the “Highland Lakes Weekly” Facebook page).

The Llano County Historical Museum will host a special “Citizens at Last - The Women’s Suffrage Movement in Texas” exhibit, on loan from Humanities Texas, from August 21 to September 14. It will be accompanied by exhibits on the Llano Women’s Culture Club, Women in Llano Government, and other Notable Llano County Women to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the passing of the Nineteenth Amendment (which gave women the right to vote). A free movie (“Iron Jawed Angels”) will be shown at the Llano Library at 7 p.m. on Friday, August 23 (popcorn and drinks will be served). There will also be a luncheon at 11 a.m. on Saturday, August 24, at the Llano ISD Community Room, with a period luncheon menu (catered by Kevin Bailey) and period live music. Llano Suffragettes will also be there with signs and banners and stories. Luncheon tickets are $15 and must be purchased ahead of time. The museum’s normal hours are 10–4, Wednesday through Saturday.

The Camp Agape 5K Run and Kids’ Walk will be held at Johnson Park in Marble Falls, beginning at 8 a.m. on Saturday, August 24. You can pre-register at www.agapeagapetexas.com for $25 and receive a t-shirt on race day. Kids 12 years and younger pay only $10. Fatal registration is $5 more, and t-shirts will be provided only while supply lasts. Camp Agape is a bereavement camp for kids who have lost a loved one; a balloon release ceremony to honor loved ones will be held after the race. Contact Janicee Rolfe at 512-962-8134 for more details.

Fall Creek Vineyards, (1822 CR 222, in Tow) will hold its 30th Annual HarvestFest from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m on Saturday, August 24. The event will feature live music by Grammy Award-winner Alex Harvey.

A fundraiser benefit for Kaylee Bennight, who is battling Hodgkins Lymphoma, will be held at the Burnet fairgrounds beginning at 2 p.m. on Saturday, August 24. The event will include BBQ, washer tourney, raffle baskets and more.

The Friends of the Kingsland Library invite the public to a “Chat” with author Marion Miller Martin at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, August 27, at the Kingsland Library. Refreshments will be served following the program.

Bertram will host its 42nd annual Oatmeal Festival on the Friday evening and Saturday before Labor Day, August 30 & 31. Friday evening’s events (BBQ, pageant, auction and dance) will be held at the Oatmeal community Center; Saturday’s events (5K, parade, street dance and more) will be held in downtown Bertram.

A Sip & Stroll Art Show and Sale will be held at the Sunrise Beach Civic Center (124 Sunrise Drive) from 10 to 5 on Saturday, August 31. A wide variety of art will be on display, and refreshments will be available. Proceeds benefit the SRV Volunteer Fire Department.

The Lake Buchanan Conservation Corporation will host its annual Fish Fry (plus raffles and a silent auction) at Hill Country Hall in Buchanan Dam from 4 to 8 p.m. on Saturday, August 31.

The Highland Lakes Retired Teachers Association invites all public school retirees residing in Burnet or Llano Counties to a meeting at 1 p.m. on Tuesday, September 3, at the Marble Falls Church of Christ. For more information, find them on Facebook, email highlandlakeseta@gmail.com, or call Andrea Harris at 214-537-8623.

Inks Lake State Park will host a Not Back to School party for homeschoolers, beginning at 11 a.m. on Thursday, September 5. Fees: $6 per person ages 13+, FREE 12 and under, FREE with State Parks Pass. Activities include swimming and cliff jumping, plus a great chance to meet fellow homeschoolers! Bring plenty of water, snacks, lunch, chairs, blankets, sunscreen, floats, life jackets if needed (the water is deep). Please RSVP on Facebook or call (512) 793-2222.

The Llano County Agri-Life Extension Office will host its annual

I'm not sure why I thought the Camp Agape 5K was last weekend (I believe it's actually this Saturday morning), but I think when I googled the Burnet Fire Department's Back-to-School Bonanza, I looked at an announcement from 2018. Anyway, I got the dates for both these events wrong. I hope none of my readers showed up at the wrong time like I did!

I had a really good weekend anyway (as you may notice from the pictures in this week's paper). One of the highlights was definitely the Talent Show at Hill Country Community Theatre; I sang a song I learned from a John Denver album about 45 years ago ("Grandma's Feather Bed"). I am even got a little nervous about being on stage, the whole experience was really fun. The other participants and the audiences were very friendly, and I felt that things had gone very well. Since then, I have heard that there is at least one recording of my performance. Now I'm a little worried anyway (but I still feel good about my little adventure!)

At the same time, there was a LOT of great music around the Highland Lakes last weekend. I was able to get pictures of famous stars like Ray Wylie Hubbard, Roger Creager and Learn Rimel, plus local musicians (and friends of mine) like Eric Schnappauf and Jenny Kelso, of Cadillac Gypsy (who played at the recently re-opened Badu 1899 in Llano) and a new Burnet band called The Western Playboys (Johnny Wyatt, Andy Halbert, Alan and Eddie Whitehead) at Mama's Home Cooking's new "beer garden."

It was the first time in a few years that I completely missed the Llano Country Opry (where Tre Twitty and Tayla Lynn were playing), but I had plenty of good "music" pictures anyway.

I also had a chance to tour the scenic Inks Ranch in Llano County, the venue for last Saturday's sporting clays shoot for the Llano Lions Club, test-drive a 2019 Ford Escape at Johnson Sewell's "Drive4U School" event, break a board at the Family Taekwondo Center's 5th Anniversary event and follow the Burnet High School band around town at their March-a-Thon. It felt more like a vacation than actual work, but there were checks in the mail on Monday morning. I love my "job."

The new branch of the Highland Lakes Boys & Girls Club opened on Monday at Llano Elementary School (see page 6). They'll be holding an official ribbon-cutting at 4 p.m. next Monday (August 26). They had a good group already signed up, but I think there is room for a few more. It costs just $15 per month per family, and the kids have a safe, fun place to go after school.

For those a little older, the Burnet Job Fair will be held from 4 to 6 p.m. on Thursday, August 29, at the Community Center on Jackson Street (by the railroad depot). Anyone looking for a job, a better job, or even a new career, will have the opportunity to visit with participating companies, many of which offer on-the-job training. Some companies plan to hire "on the spot."

I thought I'd mention here, too, that Horsehoe Bay residents are invited to a "Community Coffee" at 9 a.m. next Wednesday (August 28) at the Arrowhead Bank branch on RR 2147, and that young baseball players (ages 4 to 12) in the Kingsland area are invited to sign up for fall baseball at the Little League fields (behind the Kingsland Community Center) from 6 to 9 p.m. on Friday and 2 to 6 p.m. on Saturday each of the next three weekends.
The Kingsland Community Park, nearly destroyed by last October’s flood and by its use as a staging area for equipment used in the re-building effort after the flood, is not yet quite back to “normal.” But steady progress has been made in recent weeks, and the park should be in better shape than ever in the very near future.

Park Committee Chairman Derek Timmons has enlisted the help of many Kingsland Chamber of Commerce members in the multi-faceted restoration effort at Kingsland Community Park. Among them are Marty’s Concrete, Sam’s Nursery & Landscaping, Kevin Catlett’s C3 - Made To Create, Paul Danna Construction, Central Texas Electric Co-op, 325 Internet, Northland Communications, Darren Dufraine’s DLD Enterprises, TnT Construction, Log Country Cove’s grounds crew, plus several Chamber board members and private citizens.
The Kingsland Garden Club presented its monthly Beautification Award to Mills Services (3947 West RR 1431) on Monday.

The Kingsland Chamber’s well-attended Breakfast Club networking meeting was held at Kingsland Hills Care Center on Wednesday morning. Presenters pictured above are: Susan Patten and Rick Scrimshire (Kingsland Chamber), Rhonda Colombo and Jeff Tompkins (KHCC) and Sandra Gaylon (representing Operation Exfil), which sponsored the event.

Future baseball stars aged 4 to 12 are invited to sign up for the fall baseball league at Kingsland’s Little League fields from 6 to 9 p.m. on Friday and 2 to 6 p.m. on Saturday each of the next three weekends. September 7 will be the last chance to sign up.

Youngsters gathered in the cafeteria (above) and the gymnasium (below) at Llano Elementary School on Monday afternoon for the first day of Llano’s new branch of the Highland Lakes Boys & Girls Club.

Executive Director Bill Drake explains some of the “ground rules” to youngsters in the LES gym at the beginning of Monday’s inaugural session of the new Llano Boys and Girls Club.

Pet of the Week

Meet Pyro! He’s a neutered Red Lab mix who weighs about 60 pounds. He is such a sweet boy, and has a lot of love to give. He is good with other dogs, he rarely barks, his kennel is always clean, he knows “sit” and he loves people and affection. Come meet him and you will fall in love. Adoption fees include shots, de-worming, micro-chip and a voucher for a free spay/neuter.

For more information please call HCHS at 512-793-KIND (5463). To see all our wonderful animals please visit our website at www.HillCountryHumaneSociety.org.

Most of the participants in this year’s successful Talent Show (at the Hill Country Community Theatre in Cottonwood Shores) gathered backstage for a group picture before the Saturday evening show. A second show was held on Sunday afternoon.

Above: Wayne Hawley brought a few props (and dressed appropriately) for his rendition of “Boil Em Cabbage Down” at the Hill Country Community Theatre’s Talent Show last weekend.

The Grand Finale saw the performers joining to sing “You Are My Sunshine,” accompanied by pianist Richard Goulday.

Roy and Petey Inks made their scenic ranch (below) available for the Llano Lions Club “Clays for a Cause” event. Roy is a veteran of the U.S. Navy and the grandson of Roy Banford Inks, the former Llano mayor who had the bridge, the dam and the lake named after him. The secluded ranch is in southern Llano County, just north of Enchanted Rock.

The Inks Ranch Team (Gary Davidson, Rachel Davidson, James Ramsey and Bob Haygood) took top honors at the Lions Club’s Clays for a Cause sporting clays competition last Saturday.
About twenty teams competed in last Saturday’s successful Clays for a Cause fundraiser, held for the Llano Lions Club at the Inks Ranch in southern Llano County.

At left: The McCarty Ranch/4-H team consisted of Makaela Lively and Zane Todd.

Miller’s Llano Smokehouse is growing again! Bryan and Lisa Miller’s “homegrown” business has been making sausage and smoking meats since 1986. It moved into its new Hwy 29 building in 2002. Now the building is being improved and expanded in a major construction project by John Corcoran’s Sterling Creek Builders. The business will remain open during construction.
The Burnet High School Esprit de Corps, led by the Highlandettes and followed by the marching band, criss-crossed downtown Burnet to raise funds for future band trips last Saturday. You can see more pictures on the next two pages, and many more on Facebook, at “Highland Lakes Weekly.”

Llano Animal Rescue
Butter is such a sweet gal, she makes your heart melt like butter! And you can tell from what she's wearing that she is fun and ready to play. She is about 2 years old, has been spayed and weighs 48 pounds. We think Butter is a red Lacy mix, so she's very active and athletic, and will need a big yard with a good fence. She is shy, but she's quickly warming up to people and is very loving. Please consider fostering or adopting Butter - she will be a great addition to your family. For more details, call Llano Animal Rescue at 325-247-4683, email us at llanoanimalrescue@gmail.com, or like us on Facebook.

A large percentage of Burnet youth is part of the BHS Esprit de Corps (drill team and band). The community is very supportive, and past March-a-Thons have netted thousands of dollars for future band trips.

The pictures on this page show SOME of the band members along the March-a-Thon route.
A good crowd turned out for the “Bertram Burgers” event at the Bertram Community Center last Sunday. The event raised $4625 for the Bertram Elementary School.
