Oatmeal Festival!

Photograph of the Week

This week’s “Photo of the Week” is not a great photo. I’m using this picture of singer Jarrod Birmingham, who opened at the Oatmeal Festival Street Dance for headliner Dale Watson, to explain that old age and high temperatures kept me from working as late as I would have liked. I didn’t get a picture of Dale Watson, because after I took this picture (around 9:30 p.m.), I decided to give up and go home.

Scatterthought

The big Labor Day weekend is supposed to signal the end of summer, but somehow my thermometer seems not to have got that memo. Even though August is over, most of the vacationers have left and all the kids are back in school, it’s still hot!

That would be the only complaint I have right now. I tell my friends that I try never to complain about hot, wet weather, because I know I’m going to complain all summer about the heat. Last weekend was filled to capacity with excellent events (so many that I had to skip some!), but the heat got to me, and I’m really struggling now with my Wednesday night deadline.

Of course, the Oatmeal Festival was the biggest event, and (assumed) I do get this week’s paper finished you’ll see lots of pictures from there; but I was almost as pleased with several smaller events. There were good crowds everywhere I went (I was especially impressed by the successes of Sunrise Beach’s Sip ‘n Stroll) and people seemed to be having fun wherever I stopped.

I’m using a picture of Jarrod Birmingham as my “Photo of the Week” to point out the fact that I just wasn’t able to stay up late enough last Saturday night to see Dale Watson (the headliner at the Bertram Street Dance). I had already had a long, hot day!

Part of that is the fault of the Hill Country Bleachers, who sing early in the morning at the Kingsland Lions Club’s big Pancake Breakfast. Last year I arrived too late to get a picture of them (it must have been about 8:05), so this year I made sure to get there by 7:45. As the day progressed, my starting time (especially for a Saturday) seemed earlier and earlier.

John Hallowell

The good news is that (even without making it to all the events) I had more than enough pictures to fill this week’s paper (and I’m eager to share them). It was tough to choose, but I hope you’ll like what you see.

I have a bunch of other things to mention, so I’ll better “get back to work.”

My friend NeeCee Gauman, who delivers papers for me in Bluffton and Trow, has asked me to mention the non-denominational Ladies Bible Study from 9 to 11:30 on Wednesday mornings beginning on September 11 at Grace Gathering Church (on Hwy 29 just east of Llano). There is a children’s program for kids up to age 11 and childcare is free. Call (512) 585-1075 for details.

Pastor Karl Wallace asked me to mention (and maybe attend) the Men’s Breakfast at Highland Lakes Baptist Church (on RR 2900 in Kingsland) at 8 a.m. on the second and fourth Saturdays of each month.

The Hill Country Community Theatre’s production of “More Senior Moments” will begin on September 19. If you are interested in getting a season subscription for the theatre’s 2019-2020 productions, this is the best time. You can subscribe online (www.theHCCT.org) or call (830) 798-8944.

VFW Post 1037 in Marble Falls will be hosting its 2nd annual Octoberfest from 1 to 4 p.m. on Saturday, October 5. It’s family-friendly and the public is invited; there will be pony rides, water slides, bounce houses and more to make sure the kids have a great time.

The Sunrise Beach Volunteer Fire Department Auxiliary invite anglers to participate in its 3rd Annual Lake LBH Bass Tournament benefit for the Sunrise Beach VFD on Saturday, October 19, at McNair Park.

The Llano Community Theatre group is co-operating with the Kingsland Chamber of Commerce to host a Haunted House (Continued on page 11)
Twice a year, members of the Kingsland Lions Club volunteer hours of their time to serve pancakes, sausage, etc. to the hundreds of neighbors who show up at the Kingsland Community Center to support the many good causes the Lions Club is involved with. Last Saturday’s Pancake Breakfast was once again a big success.
The Hill Country Polka Band led off the musical entertainment at last Saturday’s Pancake Breakfast, the twice-yearly charity fundraiser put on by the Kingsland Lions Club.

The Hill Country Blenders wandered around the Kingsland Community Center last Saturday morning, serenading groups of appreciative diners with their barbershop-style harmonies.

The busy Hill Country Community Band followed the Blenders, providing quality musical entertainment for the crowd at the Kingsland Community Center last Saturday morning.
The local UnMuted band attracted a good crowd to the new outdoor music venue at Boat Town Burger Bar in Kingsland last Friday night.

Kayla Outlaw and the Fridayz Band performed at Wakepoint LBJ in Kingsland last Saturday night.

Billy Scott shared his karaoke mic with Johnny Lopez last Saturday night at La Tequila Jalisco in Kingsland, and even sang backup on a couple of songs for the talented teen from San Antonio.

Pet of the Week
Meet Remi, a SUPER SWEET Lab mix. She’s about 4 years old and weighs 65 pounds. She is very smart, too; she knows “sit,” “shake,” “down” and walks great on a leash. Being a Lab mix, she does love to run and play but she also enjoys being loved on. If you are looking for a loving and playful companion, she’s your girl. Adoption fees include shots, de-worming, micro-chip and a voucher for a free spay/neuter. For more information please call HCHS at 512-793-5003 (5463). To see all our wonderful animals please visit our website at www.HillCountryHumaneSociety.org. SAVE THE DATE: OUR FALL GALA IS NOVEMBER 14 AT THE WEDDING OAK WINERY IN BURNET. MORE INFO COMING SOON.
The marina at Boat Town (next to the new Enloe Memorial Bridge on RR 2900 in Kingsland) was a beehive of activity over the Labor Day weekend.

The ladies of the new Delta Phi sorority in Kingsland (pictured above, from left: Louann Raley, Vivian Rickard, Belle Guice, Wendy Taylor, Teresa Gray, Paula Beard and Jeralyn Risley) took advantage of the traffic around Boat Town to hold their “First Annual” Labor Day Poker Run there on Sunday afternoon.
A cheerful crew of cooks and servers provided a delicious meal for hundreds of supporters at the Lake Buchanan Conservation Corp’s fish fry fundraiser last Saturday evening at Hill Country Hall in Buchanan Dam.

Ken and Robbie McGary greeted guests at the door and sold tickets for the LBCC’s Riffle Raffle.

A long line formed as hungry guests poured into Hill Country Hall for the fried fish and fixins last Saturday evening.

Thank you for reading the Highland Lakes Weekly!

Llano Animal Rescue

Ginger is an adorable 5-month-old pup. We think she’s a collie mix and expect her to grow to be about 35 pounds. She originally came to the Llano shelter with her brother; he has already been adopted, and is getting along well with the children of the family, so we believe that Ginger, too, will get along well with children. Please consider giving Ginger her forever home by calling Llano Animal Rescue at 325-247-4963. You can also contact us by email at llanoanimalrescue@gmail.com or like us on Facebook.

A total of 16 young beauties competed for the title of Miss Little Bit of Oatmeal in the Friday evening pageant.

Above: Six contestants took the stage to compete for the title of Oatmeal Queen (and the accompanying scholarship).

Claire Deutsch bested her fifteen rivals to take the title of Miss Little Bit of Oatmeal.

Proud parents Bonnie and Tice Porterfield posed for pictures with their daughter, Emma, after she claimed the title of Oatmeal Queen. Her brother, Isaac, won 1st Place overall in the Run for Your Oats 5K the next morning.

After the evil "Grits Guzzler" was apprehended and brought to justice ("tarred and feathered" with syrup and oats, in a longstanding Oatmeal Festival tradition; above, left), Parade Marshall Chet Garner (at left, from the TV show "The Roadtripper") led a wonderful parade through downtown Bertram. The parade included lots of classic cars, some imaginative floats (including one hauling Garrett Wilkinson's iconic scrap-metal dinosaur (above), marchers and a good number of riders on well-trained horses.

Even with a newly-designed float every year, the Bertram American Legion Post #607 is a very familiar participant in every year’s Oatmeal Festival Parade.

Another very familiar sight at area parades is the Hill Country Area Crimestoppers float, with its jail cell and flags.

This enchanting, low-maintenance little home, in a gated and beautifully-landscaped 55-and-over community, comes with all kinds of features that make it perfect for weekend escapes or year-round living on Lake LBJ! The home comes fully-equipped, with all appliances (including washer and dryer); the back patio faces a channel leading to open water. Lot rent includes professional landscaping, septic and water; there is a community entertainment area and docks to tie up your boat. Viewed by appointment only; call today!
Ron Adams’ beautiful Ford Deluxe was one of many classic cars in the Oatmeal Festival parade.

A sizable group on horseback, many of them from the Escondido Trail Riders, finished out the excellent parade in Bertram.

Dancers from Harmony School of Creative Arts in Marble Falls put on an excellent dancing show after the parade.

While the adults checked out the vendor booths, kids gravitated to the inflatable water slides on a very warm afternoon.
