Last year’s Kids Day Out, at the YMCA in Burnet, was forced inside by wet weather. This year’s event (probably outdoors!) will be held from 9:30 to 3 Saturday.

Scatterthought

I'm sure that summer isn't over quite yet, but I think that the toughest part of my annual schedule officially ended last Saturday with four hours in the summer sun at Burnet's huge air show. I felt really old by the end of the day, but it was worth it! If you didn't make it, I recommend that you look at my pictures on Facebook (even though Facebook seems to have tried to censor that album, probably because of the weapons demonstration by volunteers from the Museum of the Pacific War in Fredericksburg). The album was shared 23 times in the first few hours it was up, but it got less views than any other recent album that I've posted; my Destruction Derby album only got a few shares, but it had almost three times as many views!

The Friends of the Kingsland Library (of which I am a member), will meet at 2 p.m. next Tuesday in the library's meeting room. Alma Lamon, executive director of the Highland Lakes Family Crisis Center, will discuss her group's mission and services: refreshments and business meeting will follow the program.

The former Kingsland Genealogical Society (now Highland Lakes Genealogical Society) will hold its 30th Anniversary celebration at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, September 24, at the Kingsland Library. The group was founded by Mabel Jackson, Ruth Averitt, Lily Walker, and Marie McEllough (with others in attendance at their first meeting) to search and document ancestral records and provide resources to others. The group's first two presidents, Dorothy Estes and Colleen Kenyon, will be there to share some history and whimsical highlights of those early years. Other early members are also expected at the meeting. Colleen Kenyon is the co-author and editor of "Families of Early Kingsland," and will be available to sign copies of the book. A limited supply of the 140-page historical book will be available at the meeting for a tax-deductible contribution of $35. Refreshments will be provided. RSVP to Shirley Shaw (930-380-7070).

Residents of the newly-merged City of Double Horn will hold a "Boots, Chaps & Cowboy Hats" fundraiser beginning at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, September 26, at Spicewood Vineyards. The event will feature live and silent auctions, live music, door prizes, gourmet appetizers, and a cash bar. Proceeds will help fight a lawsuit filed against the city by the Texas Attorney General.

An informational meeting on this year's UTOPAfest, scheduled for November 14-16 at Revellie Peak Ranch, will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. on Tuesday, October 1, at Bill's Burgers in Burnet.

The Herman Brown Free Library in Burnet will host Dr. William H. Reid at its Coffee Talks program on Thursday, October 10 (1:30-3:30). Dr. Reid, who also performs occasionally at live music venues around the Highland Lakes area, is a distinguished forensic psychiatrist who interviewed James Holmes after the mass shooting at a movie theater in 2012, and subsequently wrote a book called "A Dark Night in Aurora."

The Vineyard J&B at Lost Creek Ranch, on RR 2233 near Sunrise Beach, will host the Kingsland Chamber Music Festival, featuring Jody Miller and Tommy Eskes, at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, October 12. The unique venue, owned by Kathy Stockton and David Oswald, was recently named to the top 10 list of Best Wine Country Hotels by USA Today’s 10Best Readers’ Choice Awards.

The Sunrise Beach VFD will host a bass tournament fundraiser, based at McNair Park, from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday, October 19.
Jeremy Serna returned to The Place Downtown in Kingsland last Friday for another artistic and entertaining evening of “Painting with Friends.”

A friendly group gathered early Saturday morning for the Men’s Breakfast at Highland Lakes Baptist Church (on RR 2900 in Kingsland). The breakfast is held at 8 a.m. on the second and fourth Saturday of each month.
Three representatives from Lauren Concrete celebrated membership in the Kingsland Chamber of Commerce with a ceremonial ribbon-cutting at the beginning of the Chamber’s "Breakfast Club" networking meeting on Wednesday morning at Sam’s Nursery and Landscaping. Lauren began in Austin in 1986, and now has 23 locations in central Texas (including Burnet and Llano). One of its recent projects was pouring concrete for the new RM 2900 bridge in Kingsland.

Llano High School’s Yellow Jacket Theatre Company was in Kingsland last Friday morning (with Theatre Director Caleb Straus, at left) to plan the Chamber’s upcoming “Haunted House” project at the storage buildings next to NAPA Auto Parts on RR 1431. The production is scheduled to be open on five nights next month: October 19, 20, 26, 30 & 31.

Pet of the Week

Red is a beautiful dog who always has a gorgeous smile on her face. She has lots of love in her heart to give. She is good with other dogs, loves to play with a ball and is great with people. She does have a high energy level and we’ve discovered she can climb fences so she will need to either be an indoor dog or be in a home with a high fence. Our adoption fees include shots, de-worming, micro-chip and a voucher for a free spay/neuter. For more information please call HCHS at 512-793-KIND (5463). To see all our wonderful animals, please visit our website at www.HillCountryHumaneSociety. SAVE THE DATE: OUR FALL GALA IS NOVEMBER 14TH AT THE WEDDING OAK WINERY IN BURNET. MORE INFO COMING SOON.

Two solar panels on a small platform (above, at right) provide more than enough power to light Scott Taylor’s boat dock and lift a 20-foot boat and two jet skis (below) at the touch of a button; his neighbor uses the same system to lift his pontoon boat. Options on the ingenious system include cameras and battery tending for seldom-used watercraft; wi-fi allows for remote control from your cell phone!
The “Ladies in Leather” Rally and Parade brought hundreds of women (and their motorcycles) to Llano for a weekend of riding and relaxing. The huge parade on Saturday filled the high school parking lot before noon (above), then amazed onlookers though downtown Llano before making its way down CR 152 to the John L. Kuykendall Event Center where the rally was based.

Chris and Todd Adams opened their “Quick Brakes LLC” business in the former Buchanan Lube building (across Hwy 29 from The Dam Grill in Buchanan Dam) less than two weeks ago. They offer “quality auto repairs and maintenance” (including oil changes and inspections), and look forward to meeting you soon!

The Weekday Cafe is open for business again! After taking the summer off, Weekday Ministries invited the public for “lunch break worship” (a complimentary lunch and “food for the soul”) behind the Weekday Ministries building at 312 S. Main in Burnet on Tuesday.

Three of the 80-plus artists whose work is on display at The Ritzy Texan in Burnet (see ad on page 11) were there for a “Meet the Artist” last Saturday. From left: Mary Weiborn (watercolor painting), Ronda Hostetter (Oil on Canvas) and Pam Emmons (unique crafts featuring old belts).

The long-awaited Wedding Oak Winery is now open for business in the beautifully-restored Badger building on the southeast corner of the Burnet square. In the photo above, Founder and Managing Partner Mike McHenry was waiting on customers last Friday. The project has been a co-operative venture with the Burnet Economic Development Corporation (BEDC), and the City of Burnet to restore the historic treasure to its rightful place as a pillar of Burnet’s economy. The Badger building was completed some time around 1883 by Dr. W.H. Westfall and Captain Brandt Badger, who would later work with General Adam Johnson to found the city of Marble Falls. The building has served in many different capacities through the years, and its location makes it an important landmark in downtown Burnet.

The Llano County Historical Commission hosted a wonderful van tour of eight historic schools around the county last Saturday. The enthusiastic group met at the Depot Visitor Center where they boarded two vans (provided by the First Baptist Church). The first stop was the O. Henry school in Llano (at left: completed in 1902). The second stop was the Six Mile school (above). The tour continued to Prairie Mountain, Castell (where lunch was served), Valley Spring, Lone Grove, Bluffton and Tow.

The 28th Annual Spicewood VFD-EMS-AUX Destruction Derby was blessed with sunny skies, a great line-up of cars and a large and enthusiastic crowd last Saturday evening. A perennial favorite, the event is a major fundraiser for the local fire department and EMS. The Destruction Derby is held in the arena behind the Spicewood Fire Hall, which has been recently refurbished and expanded. The photos show the singing of the national anthem, the "prettiest car" judging -- and then the action!

Attention Hunters & Ranchers
Blue is the dog for you!!

Blue is a very energetic and gorgeous blue Lacy. He’s about 1 1/2 years old, has been neutered and weighs around 45 pounds. We’ve found out from his previous owners that he does have hunting experience, so he would be a great dog for a hunter or rancher, or someone that is looking for an athletic dog. Blue is very smart, and as you can tell from his picture, likes to cool off in a water bucket. He is also loving and will snuggle and give kisses. Blue is an all-around great dog and is ready for his forever home. Please contact Llano Animal Rescue at 325-247-4963.
Bluebonnet Air Show!

Even before the flying began, there was a large crowd at the Burnet airport to see the static displays, the car show (see page 11) and the booths.

Volunteers from the Museum of the Pacific War in Fredericksburg demonstrated the use of World War II weapons during a short lull in the flying action on Saturday afternoon.

One of the most dramatic features of the Bluebonnet Air Show in Burnet last Saturday was the re-enactment (with three Japanese Zeros and the Blastards pyrotechnics team) of the fateful attack on Pearl Harbor which brought the United States into World War II.

Spectators at the Commemorative Air Force’s big show last Saturday got a taste of the “shock and awe” that characterizes modern warfares, as the Blastards pyrotechnics team simulated bomb blasts across the field from the air show crowd.

The Bluebonnet Air Show’s grand finale was a “race” between Tom Larkin’s Minijet (above) and Ray Kelley’s Jet Car. The race was too fast for our camera, and we never did hear which was declared the winner.
