Once again this fall, the grounds of Burnet's historic Fort Croghan came to life as re-enactors and volunteers presented a fascinating “living history” lesson on the second Saturday of October. You can see more Fort Croghan photos on pages 22 & 23 (and many more on the “Highland Lakes Weekly” Facebook page).
The Llano Library’s annual Historic Cemetery Tour event is scheduled for next Tuesday, October 22; 90-minute tours will leave the gate every 15 minutes from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. This year’s tour will feature early members of the Llano Woman’s Culture Club.

Scatterthought

I'm sure that none of my regular readers are surprised to hear that this has been another chaotic week at the Highland Lakes Weekly, but this week is a little different and there are a couple of lights at the end of the tunnel. That doesn't mean this week's paper will be perfect, but it MIGHT mean that things will be getting slightly more organized and efficient (and possibly that I'll be getting a little more sleep in the near future). I'll keep you posted!

Since I am writing this column on October 16, I wanted to at least mention that this is the one-year anniversary of last October's terrible flood on the Llano River. There are quite a few people who still have not completely recovered from that disaster, but I have been so proud to see the way the Highland Lakes community has banded back, in many ways we are better off now than we have ever been, and (for me at least) this is a "happy" anniversary.

When I started "planning" this week's paper in my mind, I figured I'd include a few flood pictures to commemorate the historic day. Now it looks like won't have enough space in the paper but I've already shared my one-year-old album of flood pictures on Facebook; if you haven't seen them, I think you'll be impressed.

I had so many adventures this past week that I can't remember them all. I do want to mention here my memorable trip to the Phoenix Center's 7.2-acre ranch, off Hwy 71 about two miles west of the Baylor Scott & White Hospital. It's been less than two years since the property was acquired, and a ground-breaking for the main facility isn't planned before December, but Sarah Garrett's dream of a state-of-the-art place to provide mental health care for area children in need is taking shape there, and I was very much impressed to see what has already been accomplished. I have some pictures on page 19, and quite a few more on Facebook. I hope to be visiting there (and reporting on the progress) more frequently in coming months.

I've been asked to mention a few items here, and I think I'd better start now. For one thing, the Hill Country Community Band will be performing from 6 to 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, October 19, in an outdoor "Brass in the Grass" concert at Johnson Park in Marble Falls.

For another, the Trailblazer Grille in Burnet is throwing a big "Scream on the Square" event (also this Saturday) to benefit LOTUS, a pediatric cancer caregiver support organization. That event will include a four-course dinner with a special Halloween menu, a silent auction, costume contests and a "Murder Mystery" with professional actors. Call 512-756-7636 for tickets or info.

And the Spicewood and Highland Lakes Lions Club is planning a big party on the evening of Friday, October 25, with a BBQ dinner, live music and a silent auction at Steen House Vineyard in Spicewood.

And one more thing: Altus Hospice is sponsoring a grief support group that is open to anyone who has recently (or even not so recently) suffered the loss of a loved one. The twelve-week support group will meet weekly for approximately 90 minutes and will include both learning about the grief process, and sharing and supporting each other in the grief journey. Beginning the last week of October, the group will meet on either Tuesday or Thursday mornings from 10-11:30 at The First Baptist Church in Kingsland. If you would like to join, or want to find out more about it, please call or text Kevin Jordan, Bereavement Coordinator for Altus Hospice, at 512-767-5352, or email him at kjordan@altushospicecare.com.

Thanks to our friends and neighbors who came to our health fair. So many thanks to each and every church volunteer who helped make it a success. We are truly blessed.

Pet of the Week

WAGS IS STILL HERE... WE REALLY DON'T KNOW WHY.

This Super Sweet cutie has been with us over 120 days and he's only a year old. He has probably never known what it's like to have a loving home. We've taken him to several off-site events, and he gets along great with all the other dogs and especially enjoys all the attention and love he receives from the people. Won't you be the one who shows him what it's like to have a real home? His adoption fee is only $30.00, and he has all his shots and is already neutered so he's ready to go! Adoption fees include shots, de-worming, micro-chip and a voucher for a free spay/neuter. For more information please call HCHS at 512-793-KIND (5435). To see all our wonderful animals please visit our website at www.HillCountryHumaneSociety.

The Marvelous Wonderettes!

The Llano Community Theatre’s production of the hilarious-but-touching musical “The Marvelous Wonderettes,” stars (from left): Kari Miller, Lisa Rogers, Lisa Davis and Jenny Kelso. They and several supporting actors will present three more shows this weekend: 7 p.m. on Friday and Saturday; 2 p.m. on Sunday, October 19-20. See more photos on page 18 (and many more on Facebook at “Highland Lakes Weekly.”)
Unsuspecting “volunteer” Robert Thompson was drafted from the audience to play “Mr. Lee,” the teacher who was the secret crush of “Missy Miller” (Jenny Kelso) and married her 10 years later.

Above: The four stars of The Marvelous Wonderettes (Lisa Rogers, Lisa Davis, Jenny Kelso and Kari Miller) use a “dreamcatcher” during last Sunday’s show to decide who will be next to tell about her romantic dreams. The play takes a light-hearted look at the joys and heartbreaks of life, and includes a long list of well-known songs from the ’50s and ’60s.

Llano Animal Rescue

We’ve got yet another family of great dogs that we’re taking care of at Llano Animal Rescue. Jethro, Ellie Mae, and Jed are 18 month old Chihuahuas, which is a cross between a Chihuahua and Dachshund. These pups are a little shy at first, but then they warm up and will play with you. At just 15 pounds, they snuggle nicely in your lap. These types of dogs are typically energetic and loyal – so please consider giving one, or all of them, a great home. In addition to looking for people that are willing to adopt, we’re always looking for those who could be a short term foster home. Also, Llano Animal Rescue needs more volunteers to feed, play and spend time with the great dogs that we have. Call us at 325-247-4063, email us at llanoanimalrescue@gmail.com or like us on Facebook. www.llanoanimalrescue.com

Fall Family Day at the Phoenix Center

While ground will not be broken for the main building of the amazing new Phoenix Center until December, impressive progress has already been made at the Horseshoe Bay ranch which figures to be the center’s permanent headquarters. That progress was on display last Sunday afternoon, as the Phoenix Center hosted a Fall Family Day at the ranch.

Ziplining from this dramatic tower was one of the event’s highlights.

Executive Director Sarah Garrett makes sure young guests are ready for a safe ziplining adventure during Sunday afternoon’s event at the Phoenix Center (located off Hwy 71 in Horseshoe Bay).
The Nightmare's "Main Event" will be a showing of the original "Texas Chainsaw Massacre" movie on the grounds of the Grand Central Café at "Dark 30" on Saturday, October 26. The movie will be hosted by the Kingsland Chamber of Commerce; it will be shown on a 24-ft outdoor screen provided by Brass Hall of Marble Falls. Beer, Soft Drinks, Water and Popcorn will be available. Bring chairs and/or blankets.

The active "Lake Area Rods & Classics" car club was one of many groups participating in Burnet's successful event last Saturday. The event featured a Plein Air painting competition, and art show at the community center, continuous live music (see page 13) and more.

Octoberfest in Burnet

Downtown Burnet was filled with vendors and visitors during last weekend’s big Octoberfest/Art Festival. Jackson Street (pictured above) was the busiest, especially when a trainload of guests arrived from Cedar Park.

A portable zipline was one of the newer attractions at this year’s Octoberfest, which also featured traditional rides and a mechanical bull for the enjoyment of younger guests.

The Highland Lakes Genealogy Society invites you to its monthly meeting at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, November 12, in the large meeting room of the Kingsland Library.

You are invited to a presentation on Fold3 by Gary Bruton of Burnet on Tuesday, November 12, at 2:00 p.m. at the Kingsland Library. Gary will share his experience using Fold3 to research family ancestors. Fold3 features premier collections of original military records which include the stories, photos, and personal documents of the men and women who served in the military. Refreshments will be provided by the Highland Lakes Genealogy Society. RSVP to 830-385-7070.

Artists from Saturday’s “Quick Draw” painting competition gathered onstage for a group picture during a break in the afternoon’s live music.

Free Halloween Carnival

Arbor House Assisted Living & Memory Care would like to invite the community to come and join us for an evening full of fun, games, concessions and Trick or Treating at our annual Halloween Carnival on Wednesday October 30th, 2019 starting at 6:00pm to 7:30 pm in our community court yard (weather permitting.) We are located at 1801 King Rd. (Right behind The Marble Falls Life Church on Norman Mill Rd.) The event is free and open to the public. So put on your Halloween best and come have some fun with us!

Fort Croghan Day

Entering Fort Croghan from the back parking lot, the collection of historic log cabins around the old parade grounds of Burnett's frontier fort turned into a fascinating history lesson on Fort Croghan Day last Saturday.

A detachment of “Buffalo Soldiers” from the Austin area presented a great demonstration of life among the African-American heroes who helped tame the Wild West.

Multi-talented preacher Wayne Hawley, perhaps better known for his musical or writing skills, dressed in old-time ranch garb to demonstrate his knitting abilities at Fort Croghan Day.
